WHY HE LEADS IN NEW PARTY

Roosevelt Breaks Silence in First Speech Since Chicago Defeat. SAYS OLD CROWD MADE POOR SWAP Says His New Party Will Represent the People All the Time.

New York, July 23.—In his first speech since he returned from Chicago, Colonel Roosevelt today set forth his reasons for leading in the formation of a new party. His address was delivered at a meeting of the New York state county chairmen of the national progressive party. Colonel Roosevelt did not intend to speak, he declared, but the chairmen would not be denied. "No man knows better than I," said Colonel Roosevelt, "that enthusiasm and high principles cannot be effective without organization and work. A great responsibility rests upon you men here, who are undertaking the organization of a new party which is to stand foursquare to democracy, which is to be literally the party of the people. It will fight on live issues and not dead ones. It will embody a protest against the corruption in both of the old party machines. It will be a party into which ex-democrats and ex-republicans, without regard to their political past, are to come in on an exact equality and to have each the same share in the party management.

"When we get this started it will be a party not only representing the people at election time but will represent them in party management. We are going to see to it that it is organized so that it will be impossible for any

EDITORS ANXIOUS TO GET BEARINGS

Republican Newspaper Men Hold Meeting at Indianapolis.

FACTIONS ON HAND

Indianapolis, Ind., July 23.—Several members of the Indiana Republican Editorial association have arrived this morning for the called meeting of the association to be held here this afternoon. Secretary Leo Fesler, in issuing the call for the meeting, did not state the purpose, but it is believed that some action regarding the stand to be taken by the association over the situation in the republican party may be taken.

The coming of the two state conventions—the progressive on August 1 and the regular on August 6—has brought about a demand, it is said, for some action by the editorial association as to which faction it will support in the campaign. Both factions are said to be well represented in the association and any attempt to pledge the association to either may bring about a heated discussion.

TAFT WOULD REPEAL ACT

Now Favors Cancellation of Rejected Reciprocity Law.

STILL SUPPORTS IT IN PRINCIPLE

New Tariff Measure Will Carry Clause Wiping It Off Books.

Washington, July 23.—President Taft has indicated to several western senators who were active opponents of Canadian reciprocity that he would favor a repeal of the act.

Some of those with whom the president has talked think he may send a message to congress on the subject or will state his position in his speech of acceptance when a committee of the Chicago convention notifies him on August 1 of his nomination. Senate leaders say that so far the president has had no direct communication with the finance committee on the subject nor sent any communication to the committee saying he favors a repeal of the law.

Mr. Taft will not withdraw his own support of Canadian reciprocity as a principle, it is understood, but will take the position that the United States should not consider the offer Canada refuses to accept. The reciprocity law continues in effect in the United States notwithstanding Canada's refusal to endorse it.

Senators McCumber, Heyburn, Gronna and others have urged a repeal and an amendment was put on the steel tariff bill, recently passed by congress and now in conference, providing for such action.

It is asserted among western senators that if any tariff measure is passed in the senate this week an amendment will also be incorporated for the repeal of

JOHN MITCHELL GETS SENTENCE

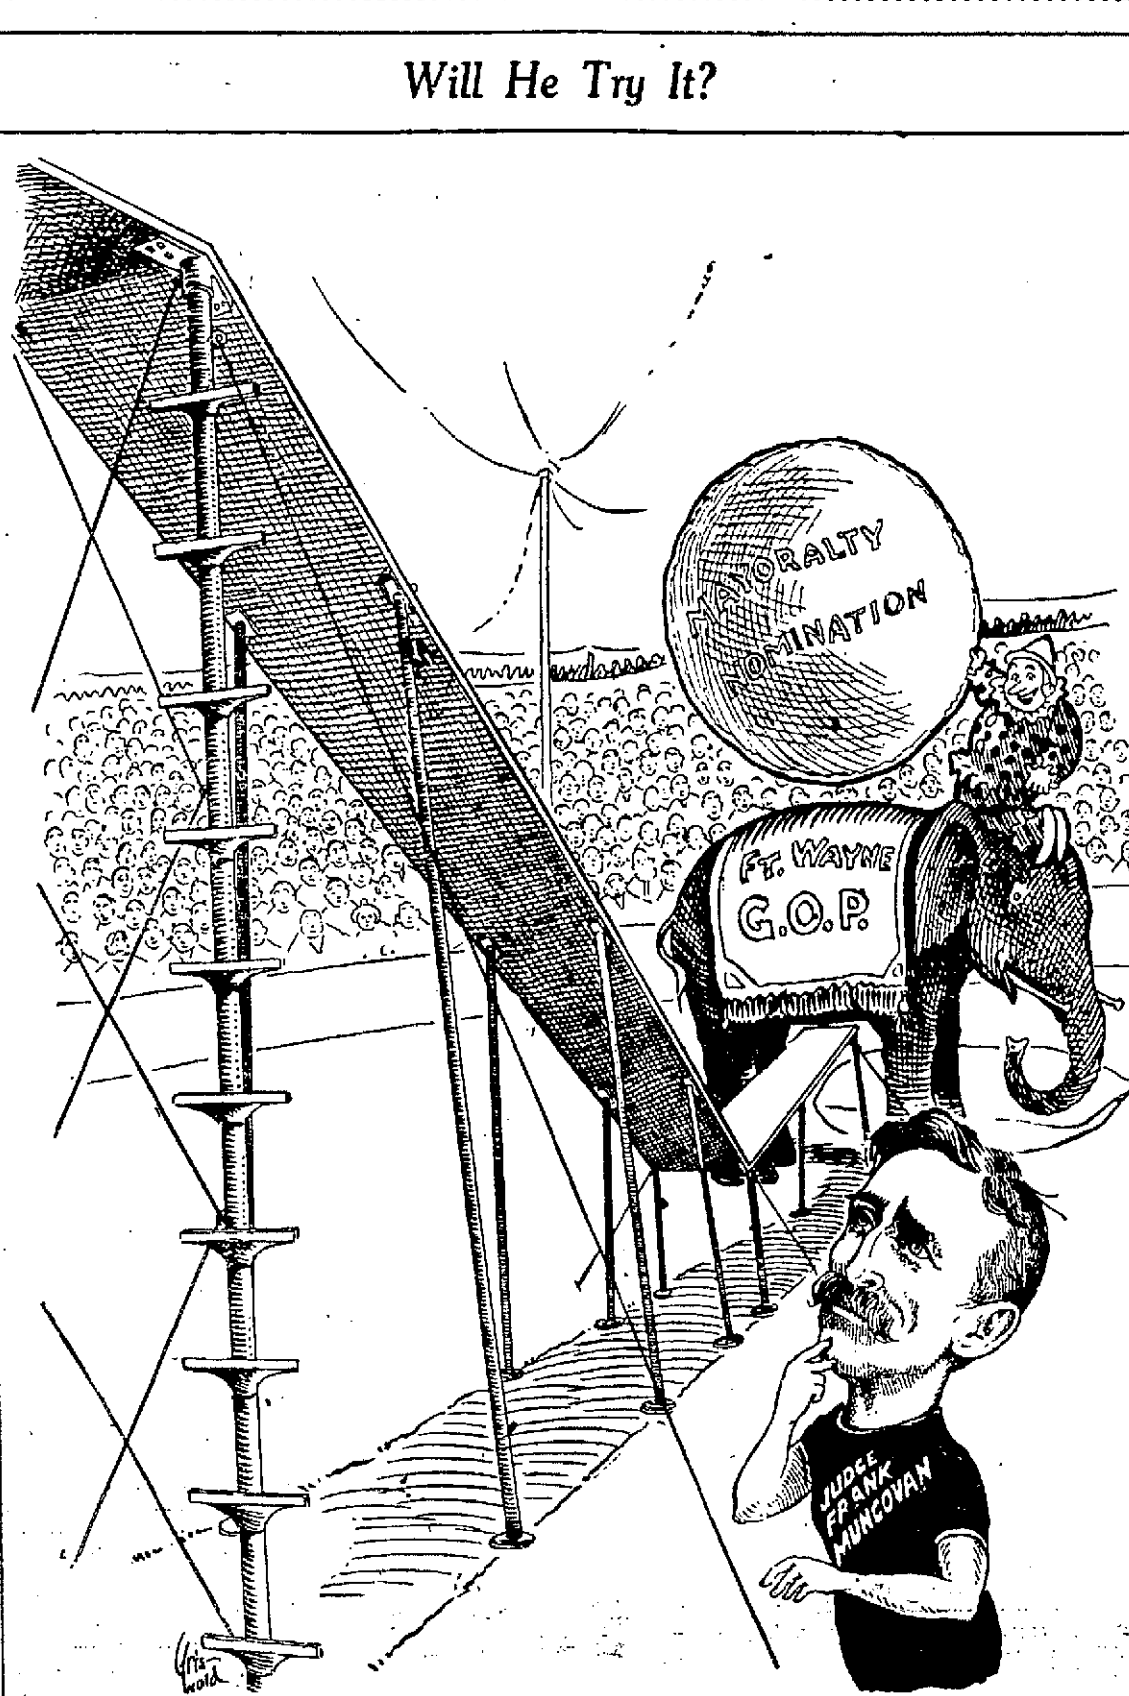

Labor Leader Takes Appeal and Gives Bond of $4,000.

WAS NOT IN COURT

Washington, July 23.—John Mitchell, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, today was sentenced in the District of Columbia supreme court to nine months' imprisonment for contempt of court, growing out of the Bucks Store and Range company suit. An appeal was taken and $4,000 bail was furnished to abide by the decision of the court.

In the same case Samuel Gompers was recently sentenced to one year and Frank Morrison to six months.

Mr. Mitchell was not in court but sent a written statement waiving his right to be present. He was to have been sentenced last week, but Justice Wright then declined to pass sentence because he objected to the form of waivers submitted for Mr. Mitchell.

Columbia City Man Turns to Face Threatening Revolver.

MOSHER HAS HOLD-UP

(Special to The Sentinel.)

Columbia City, Ind., July 23.—As Night Ticket Agent Mosher, of the Pennsylvania, turned around from the desk at which he was writing last night in response to a tap on the shoulder, he found a masked man with a dangerous looking revolver confronting him. "Hand over the cash in your money drawer," was the command of the robber and Mr. Mosher immediately

BEGIN TO FALL INTO THE NETS

Harry Vallon, One Man in New York Murder Car, Surrenders.

WHITMAN AFTER MEN HIGHER UP

Protection for Men Who Uncover Identity of Guilty Police.

New York, July 23.—The gunmen wanted for the killing of Gambler Rosenthal are beginning to fall into the nets. Harry Vallon, one of the five notorious gangsters, who were in the "murder car" the night Rosenthal was shot, surrendered himself to the police this morning and within ten days Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty expects to round up the whole gang of gun carriers.

With the men who actually did the shooting in the toils the main work of District Attorney Whitman and Deputy Police Commissioner Dougherty will commence, that of trying to learn the identity of the conspirators who so greatly desired that Rosenthal be done away with before he could make further revelations of the relations between the police and gamblers.

Several of New York's prominent citizens have offered to pay for a private investigation into the question of whether police partnership with gamblers led to the slaying of Rosenthal.

Dougherty and Whitman agree. Commissioner Dougherty remarked significantly to District Attorney Whitman that "I guess we agree as to who is back of this killing," but the public prosecutor does not feel that Commissioner Dougherty can swing the investi-

RELATIVES TRY TO SMASH WILL

McMurrin Left $40,000 to Poor Servant Girl Who Fed Him.

DOESN'T SUIT OTHERS

Petersburg, Ind., July 23.—The suit to break the will of Marshall McMurrin, brought here from Vanderburgh county, was resumed in the circuit court here today. McMurrin left his estate, valued at more than $40,000, to a poor servant girl who had fed him when he was hungry and who was berated by her employer for so doing. The will was written on a piece of brown wrapping paper.

McMurrin's relatives are the plaintiffs in the case and some came from California to attend the trial. The plaintiffs contend that the will is not in McMurrin's handwriting.

DETROIT WILL PROBABLY WIN

Seems to Be in Lead for the Next Convention of the Walther League.

NOMINATE NEW OFFICERS TODAY

Lutheran Young People in Busy Session at Emmaus Hall.

With Detroit and Milwaukee as the principal contestants, it is probable the 1913 national convention of the Walther league will go to Detroit. The vote on the question will not take place until the sessions tomorrow, but the sentiment favoring Detroit seems to be the stronger and it looks as if that city would be chosen. The Detroit delegates are making an active fight, setting forth the many advantages which their city offers as a convention city and a convenient place, in the way of railroad facilities to reach.

The election of officers will be held this afternoon, one of the last matters of business to be transacted before the adjournment for the day. The nominating committee, composed of W. G. Determann, Lester Baade and Ernest Eggert, made its report at the convention sessions this morning as follows:

President—E. A. Ehler, of Milwaukee, and Otto Gotsch, of Cleveland.

Recording Secretary—A. Grossman, of Milwaukee, and H. Nobis, of Cleveland.

SHAM BATTLE IS DUE AT SUNRISE

Indiana Militia in Camp Preparing for Last Act on Program.

WILL BREAK CAMP

Indianapolis, July 23.—Indiana national guardsmen, now encamped at Fort Benjamin Harrison with the Twenty-third United States infantry, were up early today getting their equipment ready for the sham battle at sunrise tomorrow, which closes the annual encampment. The guardsmen will break camp tonight preparatory to their attack on the regular troops, who will be entrenched about one mile north of the fort.

Lieutenant Colonel Pendleton, of the Twenty-third, will be in command of the regulars or "blue" army, while the "red" or attacking forces will be under Colonel Harry R. Smith, of the Second regiment, I. S. G. Fifty rounds of ammunition were given each of the soldiers. The "blue" army will number 500, while the attacking force will be made up of 1,800 guardsmen. Major C. B. Hagadorn, of the Twenty-third, who planned the war problem, will be the umpire.

The battle is scheduled to close at 7:30 tomorrow morning. The soldiers will then return to the fort and the guardsmen will begin preparation to depart for their homes. The first company is to leave the fort at noon tomorrow and all are expected to be on their way home before nightfall.

CIRCUS DRAWS GREAT CROWDS

'Tis a Typical Old-Time Circus Day on City Streets.

PARADE GORGEOUS BEAUTY SPECTACLE

Barnum & Bailey Show is Among Old Friends in Fort Wayne.

With its old-time reputation as "the greatest show on earth," Barnum & Bailey's circus came to Fort Wayne this morning at an hour when most of the people were in the land of Nod, and quietly, yet with much dignity, took up its abode for the day at the show grounds at the east end of Washington street, on the old golf grounds.

Along with the circus came the crowds, and all roads leading to Fort Wayne this morning, from early dawn until noon, were filled with the curious, young and old, whose personal feelings regarding a circus remain unchanged from "childhood" days. They are those who love to lean their backs along the smooth side of a blue pole in the circus tent, eat peanuts and pour down their eager throats gallons of pink lemonade.

Country roads were filled with vehicles of all sorts and all incoming street and electric roads carried great crowds.

Parade a Fine One.

The first thing on the circus day schedule was the parade this morning which passed over some of the principal streets and was witnessed by thousands of people. All streets, especially in the business district were lined, and if ever a circus parade had a verbal and rhetorical bouquet of adjectival superlatives coming to it, Barnum & Bailey's

STATESMEN ARE PLAYING TRUANT

Difficult to Maintain a Working Quorum in the House.

BEEF TRUST PROBE

Washington, July 23.—The problem of maintaining a working quorum in the house came up today before the journal of yesterday's progress had been read. Business was delayed half an hour until a quorum was secured. Sergeants-at-arms were sent out immediately with warrants for the arrest of absent members before a quorum was secured.

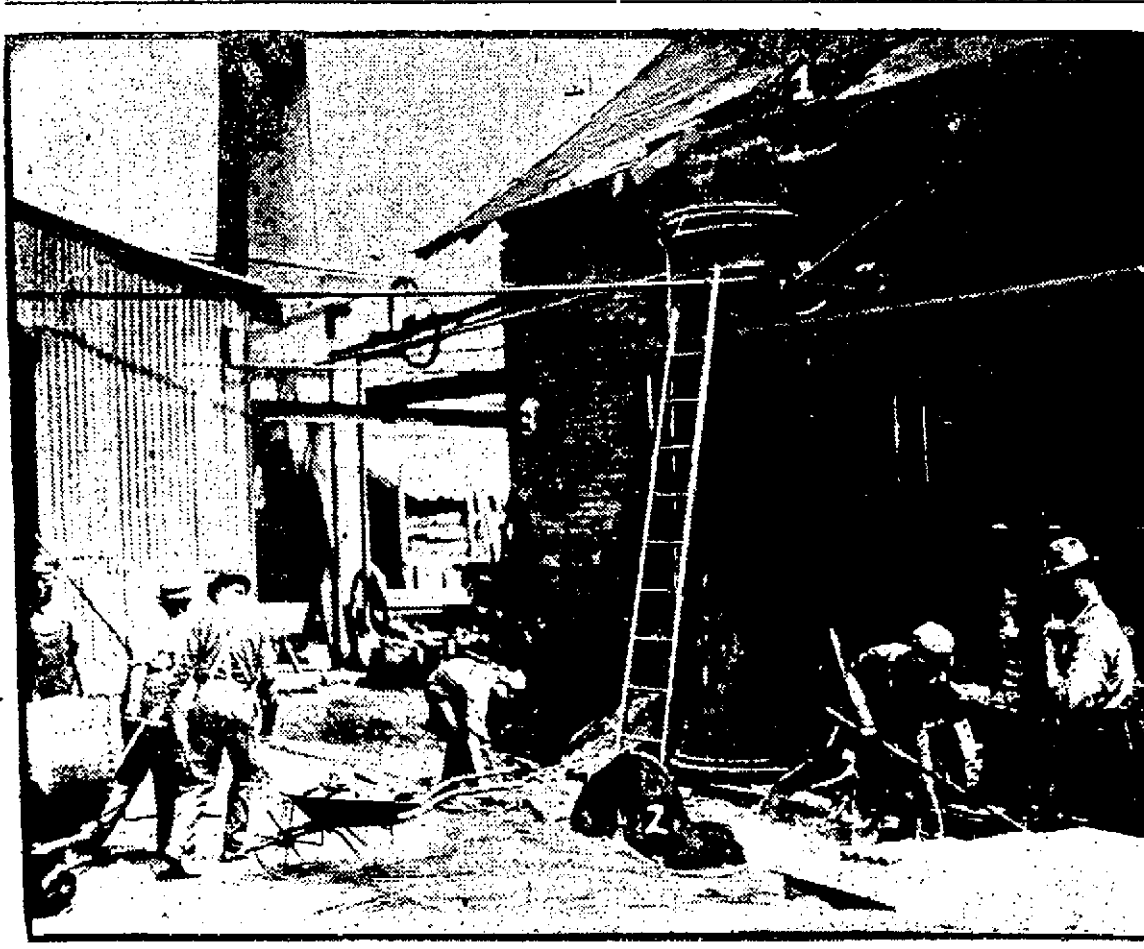

New Beef Trust Probe

Immediate inquiry into the existence and ramifications of the so-called "beef trust" was virtually agreed upon today by the house judiciary committee, with the reservation that there might be an obstacle if the senate took up the impeachment proceedings against Judge Archbald.

Want Autos in Parks

President Taft's love of the automobile was appealed to today by Representative Rucker, of Colorado, who asked the president to issue an executive order to permit motor cars in Yellowstone Park and other national playgrounds.

The Visit to Churubusco

ELMER E. GANDY, of Churubusco, and Charles M. Wiener, of this city, are partners in the wholesale produce business conducted under the name of Wiener & Co., whose place of business is the old Wabash freight depot at the corner of Calhoun and Grand streets.

Although Mr. Gandy has often been to the city on business, it has happened that not until lately have the families of Mr. Wiener and Mr. Gandy become acquainted socially. Their wives had never met. One day, Mr. Gandy said to Mr. Wiener, "Say, Charley, my folks would like to have you folks come up to Churubusco and visit us and get acquainted." The suggestion was a pleasant one to Mr. Wiener, who said he knew his family would be glad to accept.

"How many are there in your family—how many children?" inquired Mr. Gandy.

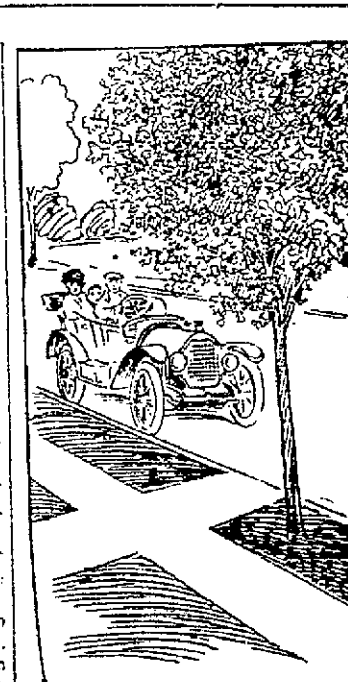

"Oh, about eight or nine—I don't exactly remember," responded Mr. Wiener, laughingly.

The next time Mr. Gandy came to town he informed Mr. Wiener that Mrs. Gandy was preparing for a visit from the Wiensers on the following Sunday. "All right, we'll be there," said Mr. Wiener.

On the specified day the Wiener automobile halted in front of the Gandy home in Churubusco. Mr. and Mrs. Wiener and their four-year-old son got out and were greeted by their host and hostess.

"Where are the other children?" asked Mrs. Gandy of Mrs. Wiener.

"The other children? Why, this boy is all we have," responded Mrs. Wiener, and then explanations followed. The remark of Mr. Wiener was accepted as gospel truth by Mr. Gandy, and it would have been all right if the matter had stopped here. But it hadn't. Mrs. Gandy had prepared enough dinner to satisfy the appetites of twelve hungry guests instead of three. But Mrs. Gandy is the kind of woman who appreciates a joke and she recognizes this as a good one even if it did cost her a little extra effort.

NEWSBOYS' CITY DAILY SENTINEL

MOTTO: "GOOD BOYS MAKE GOOD MEN."
VOL. 1, NO. 8 NEWSBOYS' CITY, IND., TUESDAY, JULY 23, 1932. SIMON MAIER, Editor.

A DISTANT VIEW OF THE NEWSBOYS' CITY.

This photograph by The Sentinel staff photographer shows a general view of the tents which form the west line of the Newsboys' City, and it gives a good idea of the fine woods and the large play space.

Mr. Hart lives close to the Newsboys' City, and his kindness in many ways will not soon be forgotten by the lads.

The city will close Wednesday night.

Dr. W. W. Shryock sent the boys a lot of good things Sunday.

Several new boys enrolled for the second week, among them Earl Johnston, Harry Lump, Arthur Flanniger and Earl Withen.

RICHARD HART.

Miniature Olympic Games Being Pulled Off by the Boys.

This is field day in the Newsboys' City, and the occasion has drawn many visitors. Some of the boys whose periods expired with the close of the first week are there to participate in the events. M. L. Jones has offered two good cameras as prizes.

NOTES BY THE EDITOR.
Nimmer DeWood has left camp and Harold Kruse has gone, too, so Boyd Johnson is chief of police. Sunday we took in $20.62. We sold over 100 ice cream cones Sunday. About all the stock is gone. We are getting ready for the Olympic games.

Five boys returned home this week their first week having expired. The general store did a rushing business Sunday, and receipts from the sale of peanuts and postcards donated by Mr. Phelps and the ice cream and the pop will clear enough to pay for the service of the cook, the rent of their tents and coats and the cost of gasoline as well as other smaller items. The boys are proud of their ability to handle these items of expense, and Backer Carl Stang is busy telling everybody about it.

THE NEWSBOYS DAILY SENTINEL is published during the existence of the Newsboys' City by the boys who sell the Fort Wayne Daily Sentinel on the streets. THE NEWSBOYS CITY, the first of its kind in the world, was established by Charles A. Phelps, formerly a newsboy, whose interest in the welfare of the boys has attracted wide spread commendation.

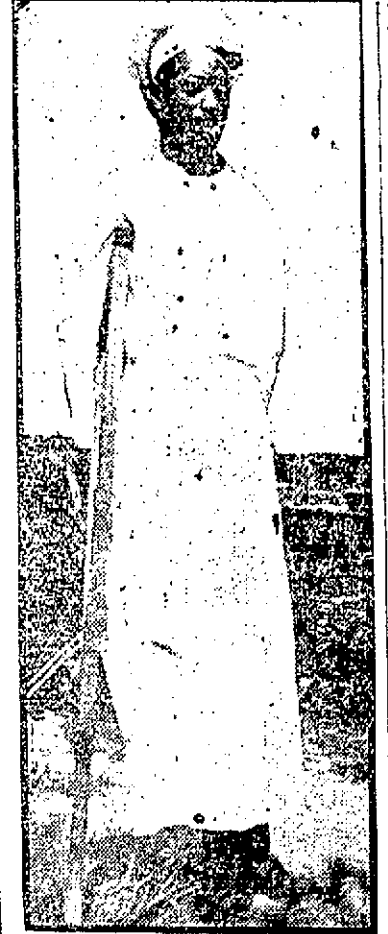

THE CITY is located south of the city limits, and may be reached best by the use of the South Calhoun street car line. From the end of the walk eight squares south, if the Deatur interurban line is used, get off at stop 1 and walk six squares west.

THE NEWSBOYS will each have one week's outing, one half of the street sellers being the citizens during the first week and the other half during the second week.

The Pain show was brought here by the Playgrounds association as a money-raising means, and in asking the people of Fort Wayne and vicinity to buy tickets the association is guaranteeing that the buyers will get their money's worth. It is a thrilling show. The first night performance was witnessed by a fair-sized crowd, and there were but few litches in the production.

Clowns Make Life.
The La Bick troupe of clowns, playing around the streets of Pompeii during the festival preceding the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius, make fun galore for the spectators and offer a few novel features. Circus-like, the clowns find themselves taking part in almost all of the raucous acts.

ashes and the streets cleared of people, the special fireworks features are shown, and they alone are well worth the price of admission. The "Teddy in the Jungle" feature of Monday night showed T. R. killing bears, giraffes, elephants and other wild animals in the woods of Africa. The Niagara Falls, the elaborate spinning wheels and the beautiful floating festoons and rockets elicit the signs of wonderment that people unconsciously utter when they behold something truly remarkable.

TARIFF ROBBERY ON SUGAR.

Housewife Buys $1 Worth, Gets Only 70c Quantity.

"Speaking about the high cost of living," said Edward White, of the White Fruit house, this morning, "I have just received some information that is not generally known. Whenever a jobber buys a car load of sugar, his invoice includes about $510 for the duty."

This and many other interesting facts were included in a letter received by Mr. White from Arbuckle Bros., of New York. The letter states in part: "Whenever a housewife buys a dollar's worth of sugar, she gets only seventy cents worth, the other thirty cents of her dollar being for duty. Moreover, every can of preserved fruit, every jar of jam and jelly, every piece of candy, every glass of soda water and even every stick of chewing gum must yield its share of the insupportable demand of the government and the beet sugar interests."

"Sugar has become a necessity of life and the family in humble circumstances is not far behind its rich neighbor in per capita consumption and, therefore, a large part of the burden of duty is thrown on those who are least able to bear it."

"We advocate the removal of all import duties on sugar coming into the United States, as the consumers of sugar in this country pay not only to the government, but also to the beet sugar refiners, in all the staggering sum of from $100,000,000 to $150,000,000."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Bids will be received on Monday, July 22, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. by the trustees of the school city of Fort Wayne, Ind., at their office, for the construction of the addition to the South Wayne school, according to the plans and specifications made by J. M. E. Riedel, architect, office in the Schmitz block. Such bids must be accompanied by a certified check for one thousand dollars, made payable to said school city. Said certified check is to be forfeited if contract is awarded and the party receiving the award should refuse or fail to enter into the contract to perform the work.

ELEVEN HURT IN RICHMOND WRECK

City Street Car Collides With Interurban Freight.

OTHER INDIANA NEWS

Richmond, Ind., July 23.—Eleven persons were injured late last evening when a city street car and an interurban freight train collided on the Fifth street hill.

Ira Woodward, a carpenter of Dunkirk, Ind., was perhaps fatally injured. Among the other passengers hurt were H. A. Wilson and wife, Mrs. John Evans, Miss Irene Pottner, Miss Esther Edwards, Miss Bessie Padlock, George Meyers, Mrs. Al Spencer, all residents of West Richmond, and R. E. Denny, motorman of the freight train. Nearly all the injured were removed to the City hospital in ambulances.

Oil on the Fifth street hill, used by the city for laying dust, is said to have been directly responsible for the accident.

The motorman on the city car saw the freight train at the foot of the hill, but says he was unable to stop his car because of the oil. The city car was badly demolished, and the entire front of the first freight car was broken in. The motorman and conductor on the city car jumped, escaping serious injury, but Motorman Denny of the freight train could not escape from his car, and was badly injured.

WANTS SCHOOL YEAR 'ROUND.

State Superintendent Favors New Plan in Indiana Cities.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 23.—Laws providing for continuing the terms of the public schools of Indiana cities practically throughout the entire twelve months of every year and doing away with the summer vacations now customary, are favored by Charles A. Greathouse, state superintendent of public instruction.

He declared today that he believes the tax payers will welcome such an innovation, and said that he is strongly in favor of proposing some such legislation before the 1933 general assembly. Wholesale returns in the methods of regulating the length of terms in the city schools of Indiana may be provided in legislation contemplated by Superintendent Greathouse and the state board of education.

Mr. Greathouse argues that the present system of breaking up the school year into several terms and allowing the school buildings and teachers to remain idle for long periods in the summer months should be abolished and that a new era, embracing a system very nearly akin to the German system of school government should be instituted if Indiana is to keep its rank in the forefront of the educational circles of the United States.

At least a half day school session during summer months, particularly in the larger cities, should be devoted to industrial and domestic education.

WILL CLEAR UP ROBBERIES.

Indianapolis, July 23.—Confessions said by the police to have been made by William Morgan, a negro, and Samuel Weinstein, a junk dealer, will clear up at least thirty-five robberies which have occurred on the north side during the last three months.

Morgan is said to have detailed his work and implicated Weinstein, who, the police say, conducted a "fence" for the disposal of the goods. Loot valued at $1,000 has been recovered from the Weinstein home where it was found hidden in closets and out of the way places. Several valuable pieces of jewelry answer descriptions in the hands of the police.

RELEASED ON BOND.

Frankfort, Ind., July 23.—Everett Hopkins, a drayman, who assaulted Rev. J. C. Burkhardt, pastor of the First Christian church of this city, Saturday evening, was released from custody upon a $1,000 bond yesterday afternoon. The bond being given by representatives of a Lafayette brewery by which Hopkins is employed. The condition of Rev. Burkhardt remains unchanged and is such as to cause members of the family much alarm.

MERELY WRECKED STRAW HAT.

Columbus, Ind., July 23.—A bolt of lightning which struck the home of Cash Coffman tore the band from a straw hat worn by his son, but did not injure the lad. The electrical storm did considerable damage throughout the county, damaging a number of farm houses and barns.

WILL ORGANIZE STATE.

Indianapolis, July 23.—The Woodrow Wilson League of Indiana yesterday took steps for the organization of the Wilson and Marshall clubs throughout the state. M. M. Mahoney is president of the league and C. R. Cameron secretary.

Two Beauty Secrets for Summer Months

Hair requires frequent shampooing in summer because of the great amount of dust and soot in the air, and if you dispose a teaspoonful of canthrox in a cup of hot water you will have ample mixture for a cleansing, invigorating and wonderful satisfying shampoo. After using canthrox, the hair dries quickly and evenly and will be ever so soft and brilliant even in the hottest weather. Then you can do your hair up in any style with little effort.

A spumax lotion is ideal for hot weather, because it permits the pores to do their work properly, and when this is done pimples, blackheads, oiliness and fine lines vanish. To make: add 2 teaspoonfuls glycerine to 1/2 pint of water (or hot water) then put in 1 ounce spumax. After the spumax lotion is applied to the face it is invisible and imparts a youthful charm and tint to any complexion.

THE JOYS OF VACATION

OH JIM—AY! COME ON IN!
THE FISHIN'S FINE!

HOLD A REUNION AT WINONA LAKE

From 300 to 400 Insurance Agents Are Now in Session There.

LOTUS GLEE CLUB

Winona, Lake, Ind., July 23.—The Ohio Farmers' Insurance company, with its attendance of from three to four hundred agents, is holding its eighteenth annual session at Winona lake, beginning today. An informal reception by the Home Office officers will be held at the Winona hotel, after which a group picture will be taken, followed by a boat ride. On Wednesday morning, July 24, all of the agents will assemble in the Westminster chapel for the business session. Following music under the direction of Miss Hessner, of Lawrenceburg, and the invocation by Rev. Sol C. Dickey, the welcome address will be given by C. C. Oranhood, the president. President F. H. Hawley will respond. A general discussion, election of officers, payment of dues, readings, and other subjects will occupy the session, after which the remainder of the day will be devoted to Winona's amusements. The officers are C. C. Oranhood, of Camden, president; J. A. Smith, of Hobart, secretary; J. L. Coleman, of Warsaw, treasurer. The members of the reception committee are J. W. Coleman, E. A. Loop, James McConnell, L. F. Coleman, Frank Federspiel, Ella McHugh and Olive Matthews.

Walter Malone, superintendent of the Children's Training Home, at Amherst, Ohio, was the leader at the Christian Endeavor prayer meeting, held Sunday evening by the Young Friends of America. This organization is holding its third annual summer conference at Kosciusko lodge, and has an attendance of seventy-five registered delegates. Two concerts by the Lotus Glee club of New York city, are on this week's program at Winona lake. This well-known male quartet will appear on Thursday afternoon and evening. Through its many American tours and its three London seasons, the club has become prominent as a musical organization and has won much favorable comment from the critics for its part singing.

CIVIL WAR FLAX TO BE WOVEN.

Laid Away to Await Return of Soldier Who Fell at Atlanta.

Brazil, Ind., July 23.—A crop of flax which was harvested by Mrs. Sarah Smith, of this city, and her mother, Eliza Hadden, in civil war times, will be woven into stand covers and towels as heirlooms of the family. A pathetic story is connected with the flax. The crop was planted by Mrs. Smith's father, but the father answered the call to arms and enlisted in the union army, leaving the crop to be gathered by the wife and daughter. Mrs. Hadden and her daughter pulled the flax, broke, scutched, hanked and spun it, and twisted it into banks for weaving. It was decided not to weave the flax until Hadden returned. But he fell before Atlanta, and the flax was never touched by the widow. A few days ago Mrs. Smith, formerly Miss Hadden, and now an elderly woman, took the flax from the huge bag in the attic and found it in good condition.

OHIO MAN DIES HERE.

J. G. Frecker, a pioneer resident of near Dixon, Ohio, died Monday at St. Joseph's hospital in this city at the age of sixty-nine years. The deceased had been a patient at the institution for ten days, and shortly after his arrival here underwent a surgical operation. The remains were shipped to Dixon Monday night.

HAS NO DESIRE TO PROSECUTE

Cline Does Not Intend to Bring Taylor Before the Courts.

SHOWS LAX METHODS

Washington, July 23.—There is no disposition on the part of Representative Cline, of Angola, chairman of the committee on expenditures on public buildings, who charges that the office of the supervising architect of the treasury department has been operated in a loose and extravagant manner, to recommend charges of a criminal nature against J. Knox Taylor, formerly supervising architect.

In the report that Mr. Cline's committee has submitted to the congress, following an investigation of the office of the supervising architect, it is pointed out that Mr. Taylor did not leave the treasury department of his own volition, but that his resignation was requested, and, after repeated demands, was obtained by Secretary MacVegh. The investigating committee charges Mr. Taylor with awarding the contract for the construction of the federal building at Toledo to Charles McCaul & Co.,

DRUNKEN MAN FELL FROM A HAY LOFT

His Ankle is Broken in the Tumble and He Was Sent to the County Infirmary.

Decatur, Ind., July 23.—A man giving his name as J. J. Johnson and claiming to have been employed for the last three weeks by the contractors for the sugar beet plant in this city, fell from the hay loft at the Bremer feed yard yesterday afternoon and broke his left ankle. The fellow had been drinking and during the forenoon had been lounging about the feed yard, frequently in the way of the workmen there. Some one about the place finally suggested that if he wanted to loaf at the barn he should go to the hay loft out of the way. This he attempted, but before reaching his destination and when near the top of the ladder he became overbalanced and fell to the floor below. He hit heavily on the floor on his side and leg and his ankle was broken. Dr. W. E. Smith was called and examined the injury and Trustee Butler was called to render financial aid and issue an order for his reception at the county infirmary.

NEW MITTEN FACTORY.

Arrangements Being Made for Location at Hartford City.

Hartford City, Ind., July 23.—Mr. Schug, representing the men who are about to locate a mitten factory here, was in the city Monday afternoon looking after some of the preliminary arrangements.

The gentlemen interested in the deal own a mitten factory at Geneva and an overall factory at Berne and have made a success of the business. The plant here will be conducted as a separate institution, neither of the other factories to be moved to this city. It will be conducted as a corporation and will be located in the loft of the Ervin block on East Main street.

STAND IN AWE OF PAINTING.

"Shadow of the Cross" Attracts Great Crowds.

Scores of Fort Wayne people saw Henry Hammond Ahl's world traveled and famous painting, "The Shadow of the Cross," yesterday, and this unfinished and unexplained picture promises to be the most talked of exhibit that has been placed before the local public in recent years.

In entering the studio the spectator sees a remarkably well executed likeness of Christ. When the room is darkened, the figure stands out glowing in the soft light and gradually a cross appears as if bearing down on the shoulders. The painting is being exhibited at 823 Calhoun street by the local council of Knights of Columbus for the benefit of St. Vincent's Orphan home. Members of the local clergy will be admitted free of charge.

Many parties are being organized in different towns in the vicinity of Fort Wayne to come to the city for the purpose of witnessing the painting. Tonight a party of nineteen persons will come in from New Haven.

CONGRESS OF MOTHERS' CLUBS.

The International President, Mrs. Schoff, to be at Huntington.

Huntington, Ind., July 23.—Huntington is to be honored by the presence of Mrs. Frederick R. Schoff, international president of the Congress of Mothers' Clubs, during the meeting of the State Congress of Mothers' Clubs here in November.

Mrs. Charles Butler received a letter Sunday from Mrs. Schoff, whose home is in Philadelphia, saying that the dates for the state meeting were entirely satisfactory to her and that she would be present. The dates, November 11-13, had been only tentatively set, depending upon the convenience of Mrs. Schoff in case she decided to accept the invitation.

WHITLEY CUTTING OATS.

Columbia City, Ind., July 23.—The cutting of oats has commenced in Whitley county. There is quite a difference of opinion as to the crop. All farmers agree that it is the best looking crop that has been seen in the county in years, but the storms have blown some of it down and tangled it up badly, and others think the yield will be cut short by blight.

MAYOR LEW SHANK

Failed to Keep Appointment at Linn Grove Picnic.

Bluffton, Ind., July 23.—There was a crowd estimated at 3,000 to 3,500 people gathered in the pretty grove near Linn Grove Sunday afternoon, where the fourth annual old settlers' reunion of Adams, Jay and Wells counties was held. There was almost as large a crowd in attendance Sunday night, and they had a joyful time.

The reunion was attended by many from this city and county and they report that there was a disappointment in the failure to carry out the program as announced. Mayor Lew Shank, of Indianapolis, who spent Saturday night here and was expected to make a speech at Linn Grove Sunday afternoon, failed to put in an appearance either afternoon or night, although he was at Berne at noon Sunday. The first speaker on the program to fill his booking was W. H. Eichhorn, who gave an address Sunday night that was appreciated.

Judge Hanford's Resignation.

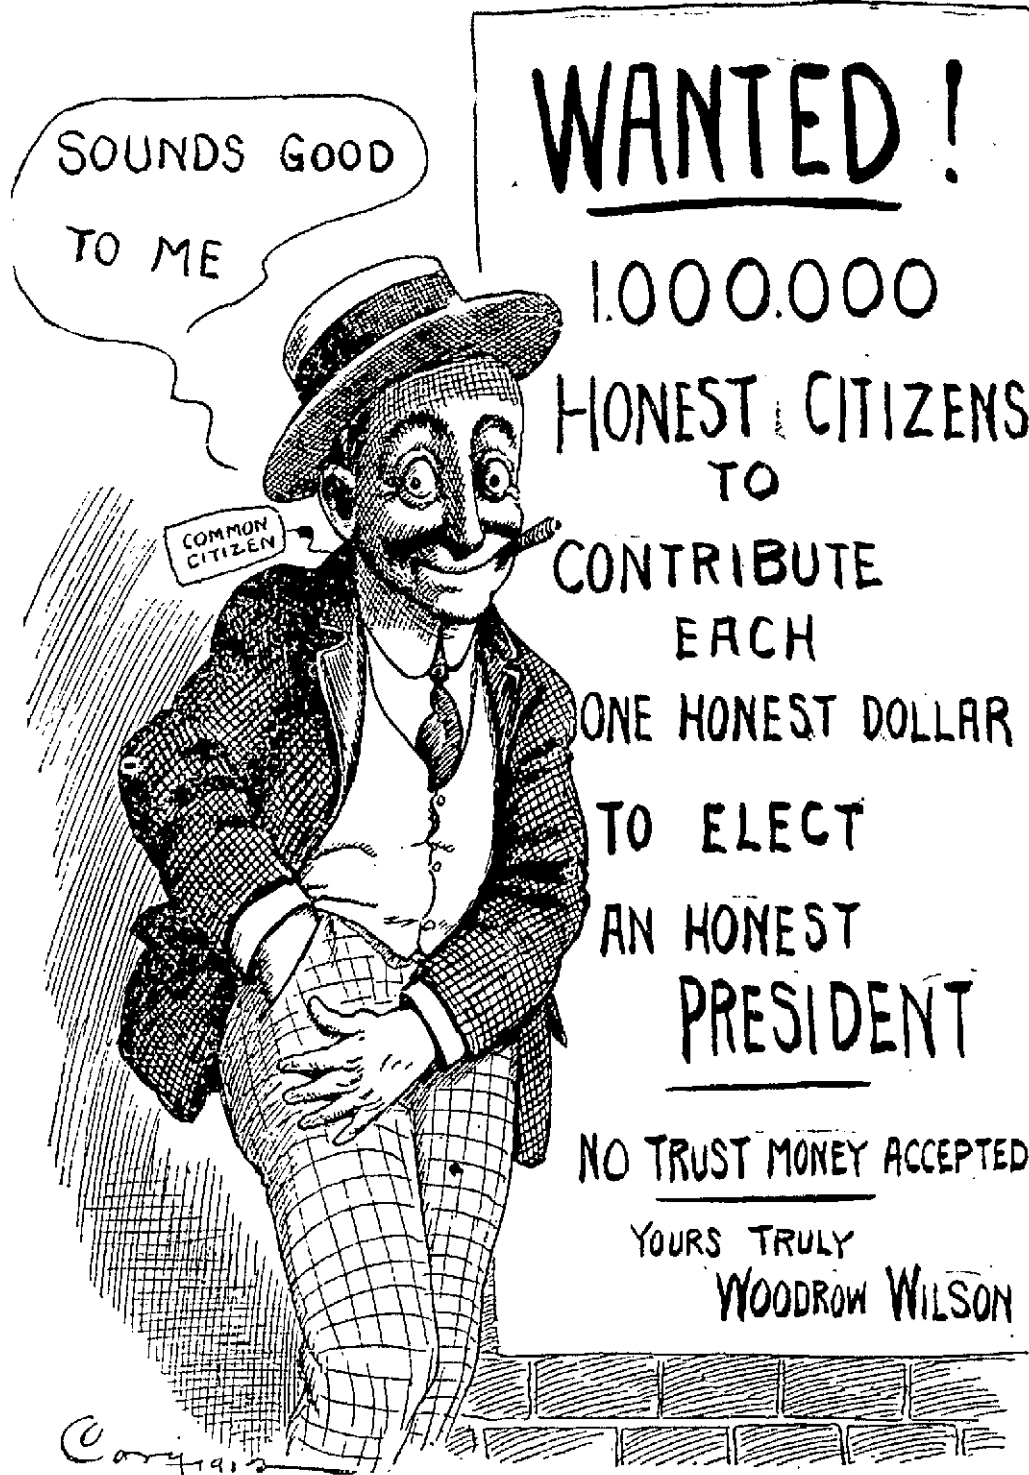

With public opinion sitting as a jury, Judge Cornelius H. Hanford, of Seattle, has unquestionably prejudiced his case tremendously by his hurried resignation without awaiting the finding of the special congressional committee which has been engaged for some weeks investigating charges lodged against the federal court jurist, with a possible ouster by impeachment as the final outcome. The federal court's jurist's telegraphic resignation of his position sent to President Taft may have the effect of halting the investigation, but it is going to send him into retirement without the vindication that is highly prized by every man of honor. The fact that Judge Hanford quit under fire will only lend color to the impression that his accusers actually "had the goods on him." Judge Hanford was accused not only of drunkenness but of gross abuse of his high position, and it was alleged that this has been extending over a long term of years. It was his disfranchisement of a socialist citizen of Seattle, however, because of his political beliefs that raised the storm that resulted in the attempt at impeachment. In-born American respect for law that is the very basis of our government has long ago invested the courts with a certain sanctity that is notably impressive in the case of the federal tribunals, but the growing belief that there is occasionally a jurist unworthy to wear the halo his position casts above him is reflected in the demand in many quarters for the judicial recall and for the recent actions against Judge Archbald and Judge Hanford. In the case of Judge Hanford, at least, it appears to have taken a long term of years for this form of judicial recall to get into operation, but it has "worked" most effectively.

The meeting of the national convention of the Walther League in Fort Wayne this week is an event of unusual interest in that it brings to the city representatives of this militant young people's organization of the Lutheran church from over a large section of the United States. Fort Wayne has already bidden them welcome. It will do its utmost to make their stay pleasant, and it trusts that the convention sessions may be both inspiring and profitable to the great organization which sent them here as its constituted delegates.

What the average party patriot finds it difficult to understand after the testimony given before the senate investigating committee by the fellows who handled it, is how such tremendously large sums of money can be spent in the presidential campaigns without a bit of it getting 'round to him.

The latest local "sparring exhibition" is advertised to be given under the auspices of the "Business Men's Physical Culture club." It is to be hoped that the "business men" who comprise the membership of this organization are being highly benefited by the physical culture they get out of it.

The final refusal of Governor Deneen to follow the leadership of Colonel Roosevelt into a third party can only be construed as indicating that the Illinois executive has concluded that he doesn't want to be a political orphan when this thing is over.

It takes a million dollars to run a presidential candidate's campaign, but Woodrow Wilson, in an interview says he more than welcomes the plain citizen's big silver dollar.

his own instinctive ability to handle men. The Princeton "rooters" who believe that Woodrow Wilson should be president, and the Yale "rooters" who believe that William Howard Taft should remain president, will undoubtedly make the air resound with their cheers when the campaign begins. It is expected, however, that the campaign will be a struggle between the air and the ground, with young men of ability and zeal. It will not be a case of age serving youth in the approaching battle. It will not be a case of the "old guard" of one party against the "young guard" of the other. Each party has its "old guard," but for the present the old war horses will retire to the rear, while each army is led by one of its younger generals. Youthful gladiators will match their skill and strength, and neither, doubtless, will offer excuses should the other triumph.

A STANDARD OIL MAN'S HONESTY. (New York World.) The incident of a player in a bridge game on the Mauretania relating to a charge of unfair play that he was "a Standard Oil man and thoroughly honest," raises questions of ethical interest.

There is, of course, no reason why a Standard Oil man should not be honest, or for that matter an International Harvester man or a Beef, Tobacco or Steel man. The point is the implication that to be a Standard Oil man connotes honesty. Would a similar connotation attach to membership in other trusts? A member of a corporation which has been dissolved by the government and made to conform to the law regulating business combinations might allege the possession of a federal certificate of honesty not yet acquired by trusts still undergoing prosecution.

But is honesty under the laws of bridge the same thing as honesty under the Sherman act? A man's moral code may differ according as it concerns him individually or as a member of a corporation. Yet at least a new method of attesting innocence has been supplied the user of which may become apparent to a faithful trust man arrested for oversteering, or a Powder trust man involved in a dispute over an election bet.

HE'LL TRY TO MAKE RAIN. C. W. Post's Theory to be Tested at Battle Creek.

Battle Creek, Mich., July 23.—Under the supervision of local commercial organizations a thorough test of C. W. Post's theory of artificial rainmaking will be given here. The utility of the plan has repeatedly been demonstrated near Post City, Texas. The theory is that repeated discharges of dynamite, along a firing line two miles in length, will produce rain. It is based upon the historical fact that rain almost invariably follows a battle in which the cannonading has been heavy. National and public officials, agricultural experts and newspaper men from Michigan and surrounding states have been invited to attend the demonstration and it is anticipated that several thousand people will visit Battle Creek to witness the unique experiment.

SAID TO BE INDIANA FUGITIVE. Minneapolis, Minn., July 23.—After passing for nearly a week as "William Janke," of Milwaukee, during which time he stayed at one of the best hotels in the city, a man said by the police to be Morris Fizek, under fourteen years' sentence on forgery charges in Indiana, was arrested here today.

BRITISH DOCTORS FIGHT IT. Open War on Lloyd-George and National Insurance Scheme.

Liverpool, Eng., July 23.—The British Medical association has finally declared open war on David Lloyd-George, the chancellor of the exchequer, and the national insurance scheme by which 13,000,000 people are brought into a system of contributory insurance against sickness and disability. The matter has been under advisement of the committee of the association and today at its annual meeting here the doctors present passed a resolution breaking off negotiations and refusing to accept office of any kind in connection with the national insurance act until the government grants the association's demand of approximately $2,122 annually for medical attendance on each person insured.

Sir James Barr, the new president of the association, in his inaugural address, characterized the act as the "most gigantic fraud perpetrated on the public since the South Sea bubble."

The doctors generally cheered the vitriolic attack, but there was a number of dissents in the audience.

FARM SHOWS RAPID RISE. Blackford County Acres Bring $145 Each at Last Sale.

Hartford City, Ind., July 23.—The top price in Blackford county farm land was reached here when Joseph Love sold his ninety-acre farm in Washington township, Blackford county, to Charles H. Warner, of Hobbs, Tipton county, for $13,050, or $145 an acre. Last fall Jesse Bugh, of this city, sold the farm for $117 an acre to C. M. Harvey. This spring Harvey sold the farm to Love for $135 an acre. Warner last week sold a forty-acre tract near Elwood for $300 an acre.

EMBALMS HER OWN FATHER. Woman Undertaker Performs Last Services for Dead Parent.

Stratton, Col., July 23.—T. J. Webster, who lived southwest of Stratton, died at his farm home after a short illness. His daughter, Mrs. Rogers, of Selden, Kan., was summoned and she embalmed the body and sent it to Selden, Kan. Her friends were horrified at the position she took in the matter. She replied: "That was the last thing I could do for poor papa." Mrs. Rogers is a licensed embalmer.

THREE BROTHERS DROWN. Fairfield, Ill., July 23.—Three sons of James P. Gillison, a farmer living eight miles northeast of this city, were drowned today in a pond while swimming. The children were missed from their home and with the use of bloodhounds they were traced to the pond.

DOG CAUSES FATAL ACCIDENT. Lebanon, Ill., July 23.—Clara Ferris, 10 years old, was shot through the heart and killed today in an accident caused by a dog. The girl was in the yard at her home and not far away John Wallace, 14 years old, was cleaning a revolver. As he put the loaded cylinder in place a dog ran into his arm, causing him to discharge the weapon. The bullet struck the girl.

GARRY CASE TO GRAND JURY. Striking Boston Trolley Men Win Technical Victory.

Boston, Mass., July 23.—Having gained what they look upon as a technical victory before the state board of conciliation and arbitration, the striking trolley men of the Boston Elevated Railway company today presented their alleged grievance to the grand jury at the invitation of District Attorney Joseph C. Pelletier. The district attorney also summoned before the grand jury the president of the company, General William A. Rancroft, and two of the directors, James M. Fenderson and J. L. Richards. Their views are sought in connection with the institution of charges of coercion and perjury made against some of the road's division superintendents.

In its report issued last night, the state board of conciliation and arbitration held that the strikers were justified in believing that the discharge of more than 200 of their fellows was due to the activity of the men in connection with the forming of a union. The division superintendents in their testimony before the board denied that the discharges were because of union activity.

Mr. Pelletier said that the grand jury hearing was held under a statute which prohibits the coercing of any employee from joining a labor union. The investigation is expected to continue for several days.

Go to your druggist just as soon as you can and get a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery. Take three doses—one before each meal—and you will find there will be no more belching, no sour risings, no stomach trouble, gas or heartburn, fullness, or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, headache, dizziness or griping. These will all disappear, and besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with bad odors. Cooper's New Discovery goes right to the root of the trouble—the stomach. It makes nature do the real work. It tones up the stomach, purifies the blood, loosens up the clogged machinery of the body and makes men and women who have been half-sick all the time sleep well at night, forget nervousness and enjoy life all day. To Help Nature Shed a Bad Complexion

(From the Family Physician.)
Beauty devotees are enthusiastic over the beautifying qualities of mercerized wax. Perhaps nothing discovered within recent years accomplishes so much, so quickly, without harm, without detaining one indoors, and at small expense. The principal reason for its wonderful merit is that it works in harmony with physiological laws. Instead of hiding, or "curing" complexion defects, it removes them. The wax actually takes off the aged, faded, sallow or blotchy cuticle, gently, gradually, causing no inconvenience. It is Nature's way of renewing complexions. When the natural process is retarded because of deficient circulation or nerve tonic, mercerized wax comes to the rescue and hastens the skin shedding. The new complexion which appears is a natural one, youthful, healthy, exquisitely beautiful. If you've never tried mercerized wax, get an ounce of it at the drug store, use at night like cold cream, washing it off in the morning.
Another natural beautifying treatment—for wrinkled, flabby skin—is to bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of salicylic acid in a half pint witch hazel. This is remarkably effective.

Chronic Diseases Cured

The scientific process employed by Dr. Hardman in the treatment of chronic diseases has been a revelation, not alone to the many satisfied and cured patients whom he has treated, but has been a wonder and envy of many physicians, who unfortunately for them are not in possession of the wonderful and valuable methods employed by the doctor in treating these difficult cases.
The process he employs in treating these diseases, which affect the general constitution, is that of introducing his special medicines directly into the circulation, thereby bringing it directly into contact with the poisoned blood and the diseased organs.
The treatment is so rapid and astonishing in its effects that there is no wonder that the patients are gratified at the marvelous results. When you consider the fact that such diseases as TUBERCULOSIS, ANAEMIA, BRIGHT'S DISEASE, DIABETES, BLOOD POISON, RHEUMATISM, etc., yield almost instantly to this method of treatment there is little wonder at the extraordinary amount of business that the doctor is doing. Not only has he cured apparently hopeless cases but being a skillful chemist and a man of recognized scientific ability, he is constantly developing and perfecting new and original methods, for the betterment of the sick and afflicted.
Besides the diseases already mentioned he has perfected methods of curing PROSTATIC ENLARGEMENT, RUPTURE, PILES, FISTULA, STRICTURE, ETC., without the use of the knife and without detention from business.
His success in this respect is so well known that it needs but little comment. If you are suffering from any of the diseases he treats it will pay you many times over to call and see him, get his advice, WHICH IS FREE, and it may not only be the means of restoring you to health but even saving your life.
Do not postpone it any longer, you cannot afford it.
The doctor does not treat any patients FREE except where they actually cannot afford it, and does not believe that any self-respecting person would ask something so valuable for nothing. It has taken years of the hardest kind of study and investigation to develop the superior kind of methods that he employs and he expects his patients to recompense him for the unusual effort and expense he has taken for their welfare. Only self-respecting persons, or those who appreciate their health and the very best treatment the world affords, are invited to consult him.

MORGAN'S DASH INTO INDIANA

Famous Raid Was Made Just Forty-Eight Years Ago This Month.

IT BECAME HISTORIC

Indianapolis, Ind., July 23.—Forty-eight years ago this week there was excitement in Southern Indiana. The rebel cavalry leader, John Morgan, in an effort to draw attention from the larger events that were happening about Vicksburg and Gettysburg and to distract the Army of the Cumberland, under General Rosecrans, then lying near Tullahoma, where it was preparing for the Chattanooga campaign, had crossed the Ohio river at Brandenburg, below Louisville, and was rapidly riding eastward through Southern Indiana and Ohio. Right at his heels, like an avenging Nemesis, was General Hobson, and close about him on all sides were the home guards.
Found a Land of Plenty.
The river was patrolled by General M. D. Manson with a fleet of gunboats and transports loaded with troops. The days were pleasant for both pursued and pursuers—cool for the time of the year. A cloudy, smoky sky and cool breezes were helping to make the movements of both raider and pursuer comfortable.
Southern Indiana was fairly groaning with plenty. A bountiful wheat crop had just been cut and stacked. The hay harvest was on in full force. Corn was growing tall and mostly in tassels. Thousands of fat and growing porkers and as many more sleek kine were to be found about every farm, and poultry abounded everywhere. It was a land of plenty, and to the eyes of the raiders, for two years on short rations, it must have spoken louder than any other argument of the hopelessness, not only of their own safe return to the confederacy, but of the cause of the south.
Found Every One Against Them.
Morgan and his men had been filled with stories of how the north was divided against itself. In setting out they really counted on many disgruntled northerners joining with them in their fight to disrupt the nation. They were doomed to bitter disappointment when they invaded Indiana. No sooner had they burned the boats on which they crossed the Ohio river and had struck out into the interior than they found their hands against every one and every one's hand against them.

The whole country was bristling with bayonets and the tramp of armed militia might be heard at all hours, hurrying to assemble to check the invaders. Old and young, preacher and layman, farmer, clerk, all seized such arms as they possessed, whether it were rifle, shotgun or pistol, hurried to rendezvous and followed the flank of the fast-moving soldiers. The home guards were hastened to points along the route it was supposed Morgan would choose, but the crafty leader hurried the faster, and eluded them.
Raid Ends Disastrously.
Morgan's movements indicated that he would attempt to strike the Ohio river somewhere between Vevay and Lawrenceburg, but, leaving North Vernon early Sunday morning, he pushed on to Versailles and on Monday camped at Sunman, hearing rumbling on all sides he hurriedly broke camp and by forced marches entered Ohio at Harrison, skirting Cincinnati later to appear at Buftington's island, where he prepared to escape into Kentucky. A heavy fog hung over the river and Morgan waited for it to rise. When the atmosphere cleared there stood the fleet of gunboats under command of General Manson, who had followed with remarkable "timeliness" the advance of the raiders. Escape was useless, and thus terminated the most spectacular raid of the long struggle.
"Sympathizers" Suffer.
Local history along the trail taken by the raiders is full of stories of the famous ride. Occasionally as Morgan passed to the eastward some farmer, thinking to get off easier, would loudly profess his loyalty to the southern cause. Morgan, shrewdly taking advantage of such "patriotism" in such a case would call a halt and devastate the farm, his men eating everything in sight and compelling the "sympathizer" to chop wood diligently to keep the fire going while the wife and family fried chicken and cooked other dainties. Then he decided that such a "good friend" could easily spare his best horses, most of his clothing and any other thing the raiders could use to advantage.
A man living near Sunman became badly frightened when Morgan made camp near his place, and after a consultation with his wife he paid General Morgan a personal visit. He assured the raider that he was in perfect sympathy with him, and receiving his thanks in return for such generous sentiment, he returned home shouting for Jeff Davis.
Confiscated H is Crops.
Scarcely had he departed, however, when Morgan issued orders to confiscate his corn and use his shocked wheat for horse feed. The next morning this sympathizer's son was put on a horse and ordered to guide the raiders to Harrison, Ohio.

General Morgan was not always consistent in his treatment of frightened "sympathizers." Another man living near Sunman explained privately to Morgan that he hoped to see the rebel cause defeated and the union kept intact. He further indicated that the raiders would best serve themselves and the cause of humanity by quietly surrendering on the best terms they could obtain. The rebel commander at once caused a guard to be placed about the man's property and gave orders that nothing belonging to him be disturbed.
Another man, who was very fat, made the fatal mistake of thinking Hobson's men were Morgan's riders and when he gave lusty whoops for Jeff Davis and the confederate cause he was forced to march ten miles along the hot, dusty road, at a good pace, to Harrison.

FOUND STARVING AS CAR IS LOST

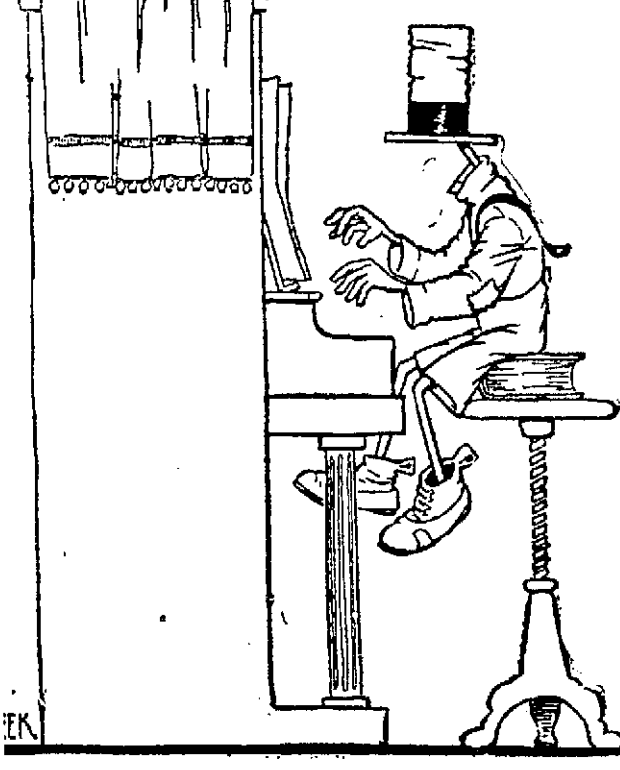

Men and Woman Leap for Lives When Cloudburst Hits Desert.

WEAK FROM FAMINE

Los Angeles, Cal., July 23.—A rescue party, headed by D. B. Porter, discovered in the Barejo desert in San Pedro county an automobile party, consisting of three men and two women, that had been missing almost a week.
They had been caught in a cloudburst, which smashed their auto, destroyed their provision and left them helpless in a desert region far from human habitation.
The rescued ones, all of whom live in Los Angeles, are John McCullough, Austin Denelle, William Schnoka and his stepdaughter, Miss Anna Hill. Though almost starved, they set up a cheer when Porter, who is a grandson of McCullough, drove in sight with a wagon load of provisions and clothing.
They quartered at Grapevine Canyon, a mining camp fourteen miles from Warner's Hot Spring. The cloudburst washed out the side of a gully and carried the auto, road and all down the canyon. The people had to jump for their lives.
POUNDMAN IS EMBARRASSED.
Title Not Dignified and Jaeger Appeals to Venice Trustees.
Venice, Cal., July 23.—Hereafter the official title of L. C. Jaeger, whose duties consist of gathering up all stray dogs in Venice and removing them to the city pound, will be "poundmaster" instead of "dogcatcher." Jaeger complained to the board of trustees that he was being greatly embarrassed by being called "dogcatcher," and asked that his official title be changed to poundmaster. He complained that his office was being made ridiculous by the boys yelling "dogcatcher" at him while he was engaged in discharging the duties of his office. Acting on his protest, the board of trustees changed Jaeger's title from dogcatcher to poundmaster.
DR. HENRY S. LEHR HERE.
Noted Educator First Brought Bryan Into the Public Limelight.
Dr. Henry S. Lehr, for thirty-six years president of Ohio Northern university, at Ada, Ohio, was in the city yesterday for a brief visit with E. V. Harris and W. H. Reed, who were students at the university. Twenty years ago Dr. Lehr was instrumental in bringing before the public for the first time the name of William Jennings Bryan.
In late years Dr. Lehr has directed his efforts along other than educational lines. He has spent considerable time at Winona working in behalf of the assembly. He still holds a warm spot in his heart, however, for Ada, Ohio, and the graduates of the university there, referring to them all as "his boys."
Dr. Lehr says that when he was casting about for a location for the great school which he founded, he was invited to establish it at Menomville.

NOBODY—By Meek.

MARRIED BUT HUSBANDLESS.

Emma Fears Robert Has Been Kidnapped by His Relatives.

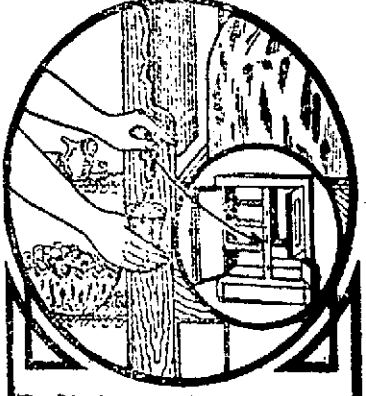

Pittsburg, July 23.—Wood, won, married and robbed of her husband all within five weeks is the story of Emma Komer Staley Deemer, of Tarentum. Mrs. Deemer, a handsome blonde of thirty-six, was with the Weber & Fields company last winter. Last May at Tarentum she met Robert S. Deemer, a bookkeeper of thirty-five, who proposed marriage. Mrs. Deemer says vigorous objection was made by her husband's family and that Robert urged haste. On June 16 they were married at Canton, Ohio. That evening, Mrs. Deemer says, Dr. Will Deemer and Dr. Roscoe Deemer, brothers of her husband, appeared and demanded that Robert accompany them home.
Soon after the couple returned to Tarentum, Robert left for Kittanning to confer with his parents. She has not seen him since. She believes Robert was kidnapped and is being detained by force. Mrs. Deemer says she has engaged a Pittsburg law firm to file suit for alienation of affections against relatives of her husband.

Dr. J. T. Deemer, father of Robert, figured as an alienist in the first trial of Harry Thaw.
LEARNS WIFE HAS DIVORCE.
Rushville Man, Declared Legally Dead, Returns to Former Home.
Rushville, Ind., July 22.—Returning home from Idaho, after an absence of sixteen years, John Collier found that his wife had obtained a divorce in order to quiet title to his property and that he had been declared legally dead. Collier deserted his wife, two sons and two daughters in 1896, and many reports of his death were later received. He makes no explanation of his absence, but says he intends to live in Rushville.

Quest for Names for Robison Park Doll Like the Legend of the Blue Bird

A little girl from Bloomingdale clasped her hands in delight when she saw the doll in the pavilion the other day. She read the sign, "Guess my name and I will go home with you." After a long, long study, she wrote her guess in the big book, then she signed her own name in her baby hand, taking the entire width of the page to do it. Her guess was "Darling Dear," while her own name, the name given her by her mother, is the real name of the doll. This little tot exemplifies the Legend of the Blue Bird. After searching for weeks for the Blue Bird of Happiness, and after undergoing every privation and hardship, the Legends wanderers return disappointed and weary to their little home. There, perched upon their own door they behold the Blue Bird itself. This is nearly the story of every human life. Happiness is not way off yonder, but lies within ourselves and acres of diamonds are around about us all.

Rev. J. F. Vichert, D. D., has arrived in the city from Providence, R. I., and with Mrs. Vichert, who has been here several days, will be guests of honor at a reception to be given this evening by Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Harrold. Invitations to the reception were issued several days ago.

Mrs. C. M. Corns, of Huntington, has invited the College Women's club members to spend the afternoon with her on Thursday. The meeting will be a social one and many who are going are planning to take an interurban car that leaves the station at nine minutes after 1 o'clock.

Miss Nora Klotz, of East DeWald street, gave a dinner party last evening in honor of Miss Frances Christen, whose marriage will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock at St. Peter's church. The guests at the dinner were the members of a social club to which Miss Christen belongs and a number of her own special friends. Later in the evening a number of gentlemen, including the groom-to-be, Clem Klotz, joined the dinner guests. The table was trimmed with pretty effect with matrimony vine and cupids and bells decorated the room. Miss Christen received a number of pretty gifts. The guests were Miss Vera Nipper, Cecelia Mettler, Mary Bogenschuetz, Ella Streibig, Mary Eckrich, Catherine Thieke, Gladys Neireiter, Hannah Huba, and Messrs. Clem Klotz, George Tholea, John Poiry, Charles Werning, Neil Sterling, Al Loeffler, Arthur Meyer, Arthur Getz, Floyd Allen, Clem Eckrich, Al Zurbuch, Miss Rose Sotek, of Chicago, a cousin of Miss Klotz; Miss Theresa Drunp, Miss Berta Biensky and George Bruick, all of Kendallville, were other guests.

Miss Clara Wisniewski, of Cleveland, is visiting Miss Adelia Kayser.

Miss Vera Treaselt has returned from a visit with friends in Saginaw, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin K. Riemann are at Rome City for a few days' outing.

Miss Helen McCoshy is visiting friends in Pontiac, Ill., for a fortnight.

Miss Mayme Remmert is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Muhler at Clear Lake.

Miss Helen Becker, of Peru, is the guest during the week of Miss Alfrida Kayser.

The Misses Ida and Emma Miller have returned from a six weeks' trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Stacey, of LaGrange, are visiting their daughter, Mrs. M. L. Cosper.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Vesey left this morning on a motor trip to Buffalo and other eastern points.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Noll and son, Billy, are expected home today from a short trip to Europe.

Judge and Mrs. I. N. Taylor will leave soon for Mackinac island to remain several weeks.

Mrs. J. F. Bolser, of 363 Baker street, has returned from a two weeks' vacation in Northern Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cheney, of Jackson street, have returned from a weeks' outing at Crooked Lake.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. McCausland and daughter have returned from a fortnight's stay at Lake Wawassee.

The East End Embroidery club will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. C. M. Jones, 2132 Force street.

Miss Bessie Mannix has gone to Lake James, where she is the guest of Angela friends at their cottage.

Miss Jessamine Sale came home today from a two months' visit in New Jersey and Connecticut points.

Mrs. Julia Lange and daughter, Juliette, of West Wayne street, have gone to Rome City for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Serva and son, of South Webster street, are at Cedar Point, Mich., enjoying an outing.

Miss Helen Byrer, of Harmer street, who has been visiting at Warsaw for a week, returns home this evening.

Mrs. Will Grayston, of Huntington, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Perfect, returns home today.

Miss Loretta Wenstrup, of Cincinnati, will arrive here on Thursday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Dietrich Meyer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Conroy and son have returned to Taylor, Texas, after a visit here with Mr. Conroy's relatives.

Miss Catherine Pepe, of 1004 Washington boulevard west, is going to Mackinac island soon to remain some weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Peters and Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Peters and children return today from a fortnight's outing at Rome City.

Mrs. Sidney Brundage, of Wells street, is the guest of Miss Dick at Rome City, who is entertaining a number of guests.

Miss Beatrice Benninghoff, of East Lewis street, has returned from Lake George, where she had a two weeks' outing.

Mrs. Carrie Heller, of Washington boulevard west, has returned from a ten days' visit at the Nill cottage, Lake George.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cline and children have returned from an outing at Lake Wawassee, where they were guests at the Greer cottage.

Miss Elizabeth Pohler, of East Taber street, has gone to Lake James for two weeks. Miss Pohler is convalescing from an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoham, of Cleveland, motored here and are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will Hoham, of West Main street. They will remain the rest of the week.

Mrs. Mary Fratis and Miss Helen Hauke, of Columbia avenue, have gone to Omaha, Neb., for a two months' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Foss, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Gruber and children, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. G. Heine and children and Mrs. William Grage and daughter, Emma, are enjoying an outing at Rome City. They are occupying Alabama cottage.

Mrs. W. J. Bowman, whose home is now in Washington, D. C., but who was a resident of this city about twenty years ago, is spending some time in a visit with her sister, Mrs. J. W. Gruber, and her niece, Mrs. W. H. Jackson, of South Hanna street.

Miss Gwendolyn Saylor has gone to Detroit, where she will be the guest for ten days of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Melcher. Mrs. Melcher was Miss May Randall. Miss Saylor is expected to motor back to Port Wayne in company with Mrs. Frank Randall and family.

Mrs. H. H. Lovell, of Chicago, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. S. O'Connor. Mr. and Mrs. O'Connor and their guest motored today to Detroit, Mich., to attend the big carnival to be held in that city and will return later in the week. Mrs. Lovell will be well remembered by many Port Wayne friends, as this city was her home for years.

The Plumbers' Trade Journal of recent publication says: "Miss Loretta Martin and her friend, Mrs. McCausland, of Port Wayne, Ind., after doing the Elks' convention in Portland arrived in Salt Lake in time for the plumbers' meeting. Miss Martin is an old-time convention goer and is always accompanied by one of her nine big brothers."

Mrs. F. W. Yeager and Miss Hattie Kress, of Chicago, who have been the guests of Theodore Kress and of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Baker at their cottage at Lake James, have gone to Burlington, Wis., where they will remain until fall at their summer cottage, at Bohner lake. Miss Eva Kress, of this city, will accompany them.

Mrs. Fritz H. Andrus and children, of Boston, Mass., arrive in the city today to visit her aunt, Mrs. A. C. Keel, of West Berry street. Mrs. Andrus was Miss Laura Benzell, of Ligonier, before her marriage, which took place in Rome, Italy, a number of years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Benzell spent the early years of their married life in southern Africa, where Mr. Benzell had business interests.

Mrs. A. T. Vail and the Misses Vail came home last evening from a two months' tour of the Pacific coast points of interest. They traveled from Las Vegas to Seattle and visited many places in Colorado and Utah and returned home via the Northern Pacific. During their absence Mrs. Vail and her daughters visited her parents, Judge and Mrs. Kilgore, in the Kankakee valley, Illinois. The entire Vail family will leave shortly for their summer home in Oden, Mich., to remain until the middle of October.

Biddle-Coolman.

Miss Mary Coolman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Coolman, of Butler street, and Mr. Lyle Biddle, son of Mr. John Biddle, of Arcola, were married on Sunday afternoon, July 21, at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. English, pastor of the M. E. church at Sheldons. Miss Lottie Ecker and Mr. Harry Butts were the bridesmaid and groomsmen. The bride was prettily gowned in a white embroidery dress and held a bouquet of bride roses. The bridesmaid wore a tan silk gown trimmed with white and her flowers were white carnations. There were fifty guests at the wedding. The decorations were outdoor flowers and the bride's table was done in white and green. The bride and groom have gone to housekeeping at the home of the groom's father, north of Arcola.

In the Kitchen and the Pantry.

Choice light meats, such as chops or cutlets instead of heavy steaks and roasts, are suitable in hot weather. Veal is light and delicious when delicately breaded. A combination vegetable salad is cool and refreshing in place of hot creamed or boiled vegetables. Pineapple is a seasonable dessert dainty.

Vegetable Salad.

Mix one cup cold cooked, seasoned potatoes, one cup tomato jelly, cut in cubes and one cup cold, cooked, seasoned peas. Marinate with French dressing. Arrange on a salad dish and garnish with slices of tomato around the edges and mounds of peas.

Pineapple Shortcake.

Sift together one quart of flour, one teaspoonful of salt, three teaspoonfuls of baking powder; add one-half cup of butter; work it lightly through and wet it with cold milk as soft as can be handled. Roll it and spread it with melted butter and bake to a light golden brown. Lift off the top layer, spread it with butter and then cut up pineapple between the two layers and on top. Whip a pint of cream with a tablespoon of powdered sugar and heap it over the top.

CAKE BAKING.

Cakes containing brown sugar, molasses or chocolate should be baked in a moderate oven. Those containing fruit need a slow oven. When putting a loaf-cake mixture into a pan, leave a depression through the center. The cake naturally rises higher here, and without this precaution makes an unsightly loaf.

BROWN BREAD.

By taking some of the sponge you make for white bread and stiffening it with brown flour, good brown bread may be made. Do not make it as stiff as white bread, and add a little molasses to the sponge. Brown bread is considered better to eat when fresh; white bread when partly stale.

LAUNDERING.

In laundering colored gowns it is necessary to be as careful of ironing them as washing them, to prevent fading. Always iron with as cool an iron as possible, as the heat of the iron will fade the material in the same manner, but not to such an extent as the sun.

Billie Burke

ON BEAUTY.

MISS BILLIE BURKE.

The first word—Beauty's greatest friends are fresh air, pure water and proper diet.

The greatest cosmetic known is pure air. One has but to look at the pallor of the men or women who are long in close confinement, as in our penitentiaries, to realize this. The body, as well as the lungs, needs air and it would be impossible for anyone to live if he were encased in an air-tight covering, even though he could breathe through his nose. It is a matter of history that one of the choir boys at the vatican was covered with gold foil to represent an angel in one of their ecclesiastical pageants, and at the end he was found to be dead.

However, in your desire for fresh air, do not overdo it and become sunburned and tanned.

The senseless habit which so many girls have of hating their hands and arms to the shoulder and turning in the neck of their shirtwaists and allowing their skin to become tanned and burned, is very reprehensible. The skin never is as fine again after being burned, and it is needless, from a health standpoint, to become sunburned. The girl who exercises much in the open air should wear a large hat or a veil as a protection to her face, and long sleeves and large gloves for her hands and arms. Then next to the first word—Beauty's greatest friends are fresh air, pure water and proper diet.

Be sure and sleep with all your windows open, and do not be afraid of the night air, as it is usually purer than the air in the day time.

It is also foolish to think too much of our grandmother's bugbear "drafts." One does not take cold from a draft. Cold is contracted from a germ and the only way a draft can give it to you is by stirring up the germs that have congregated in an unused or dirty room.

Learn to think of fresh air as one of your greatest blessings and use all you can of it on all occasions and you will find that you will soon be possessed of a splendid lung capacity which will add years to your life, besides giving you a wholesome, clean complexion that will be good to look upon. You will also find that if you take long breaths of pure air every day, it will in some way clear out the cobwebs from your brain. Living habitually in an atmosphere of fresh air will make your thoughts and ideas have a freshness and enthusiasm never attained by those who breathe in a vitiated atmosphere.

Just one last word—Fresh air is not only a necessity to beauty, but to health as well.

NOAH AND HIS ARK FIGURE IN COURT

Flood a Mere Local Disturbance, Says Chicago Witness.

IN RELIC THEFT CASE

Chicago, July 23.—Noah, his ark, and the flood upon which it sailed became issues in a Chicago court yesterday.

A puzzled jury was led through a maze of biographies into a labyrinth of scientific terms which concerned the modern finger print system.

Startled verifiers learned that after all the flood was only a local disturbance, which didn't amount to much and that the labyrinth was built in the twelfth dynasty.

It all happened because old King Menes of Egypt, who reigned some 5,300 years ago, didn't take care of his golden amulet. Because the king was careless the amulet fell into the Nile. It lodged in the river bed until twelve years ago, when a group of exploring university professors dug it up and brought it to Chicago, where it was placed in Haskell Oriental Museum at the Midway school.

On Feb. 17 of this year it was stolen. The thief leaving finger prints on the dust of the show case. University professors say the finger prints were those of John C. Hartzell and he was arraigned before Judge Kersten yesterday.

Dr. James H. Brewster, biographic expert at the university, was on the stand explaining how King Menes' amulet had been the property of the university.

"When did King Menes own this amulet?" asked John F. Gesting, lawyer for the defense.

"About 5,300 years ago," explained the professor.

"How long was that before the flood?" A puzzled look came over the witness' face.

"I don't know," he answered. More Flood Questions. Some more questions in which the flood figured were asked.

Then the witness interrupted. "Your honor, I'd like to know what flood this gentleman is talking about?" he asked.

Gesting answered: "Did you ever hear of an old gentleman of the name of Noah, who was mentioned in connection with a flood?" he asked.

"Yes," answered the witness, with much confusion.

"Do you know when Noah went into his ark?"

"Not exactly."

"How do you know that King Menes lived 5,300 years ago?"

"By reading and inscriptions on relics."

Then the professor turned on the lawyer.

"You seem to infer that the flood was universal. The Old Testament tells us that the children of Noah married and therefore the world could not have perished," he said.

More questions followed, but finally Judge Kersten stopped them.

But the relief of the jury, which was evident, was a mistaken one, for immediately there was a plunge into modern science when Thomas F. McFarland, finger print expert, took the stand with exhibits and photographs and testified until court adjourned.

STYLISH COLONIAL PUMPS AND HIGH SHOES FOR THE SUMMER GIRL'S WEAR.

"What sort of shoes shall I buy?" The summer girl is asking the question with a good deal of interest these days. The subject seems very simple. But now that the quickly changing fashions have reached down to footwear, it is more or less puzzling without some sort of a guide. First in favor now is the colonial pump, with its high tongue; trim straight heel and metal buckles across the front. The neat buttoned boots of black patent leather, with black cloth tops, are for wear with morning costumes. Those with tops of twilled or striped fabric are for wear with afternoon tailored suits.

FASHION AD ARTIST WINS WORLD'S BIGGEST ART HONOR.

"MORNING," THE PAINTING WHICH WON SAVAGE THE "PRIX DE ROME."

Gene Savage Will Break Away From Commercial Art Now and Paint to His Heart's Content in a Roman Palace.

"We're very much pleased with your drawings for our fashion ads, Mr. Blank, and we'll pay you $500 a month to keep it up."

"I'm sorry, Mr. Merchant, but I've got to paint a picture of 'Morning.' I'll have to turn you down."

If you'd been in the office of one of the biggest men's clothing dealers in the country recently you'd have heard this conversation, and probably said to yourself, "Well, of all the young idiots!"

Well, the young man hiked to his little studio and got busy.

Result: He won the "Grand Prize of Rome," bestowed annually upon the best young male artist in the United States by the American Academy of Rome.

He gets a three years' residence in Villa Aurelia (the highbrow art workshop of the world).

A large and beautiful studio in which to work.

A beautiful home in which to live.

One thousand dollars a year for three years for personal expenses.

And the best instruction on earth.

The winner of all this glory is a youngster from Bloomington, Ill., named Eugene Savage.

At an early age this awkward country boy drew pictures which made the neighbors say, "I'll swan, if it don't just like him!" They sent Gene to school, but he nearly got expelled because he insisted on drawing pictures on the blackboard. It was pretty generally conceded that Gene Savage was no good for anything.

EUGENE SAVAGE.

But Gene didn't care, and when he was full grown he beat it up to Chicago, to learn to be an artist.

Now right here is where this story becomes improbable. Gene did not starve to death. He had no more than taken a hall bedroom and paid a week's board in advance than he got an order to do some pictures for a department store ad.

That's the way he got his start. He studied in the Chicago Art Institute, and after a while found he could make $50 or $60 a week on fashion cuts by working in five hours on a Saturday, giving him all the rest of the week for what he actually wanted to do. He also saved some money, and was able to take a course at the Corcoran Art gallery in Washington, winding up with two years in the Chicago academy.

Savage also took unto himself a wife—a young woman doctor of Bloomington.

When the annual contest for this year's "grand prix" opened, he was ready to go after it. He had become one of the greatest fashion artists, but he threw his whole soul into the fight for bigger stakes.

So out of all the aspiring and perspiring young artists who competed this year, Gene Savage was selected. He will go to Rome—and take his little wife with him—in the fall.

THIS NAPOLEON KICKS AT RESCUE

Big Gray Horse Swims Miles to Island and Refuses to Leave

IN CENTER OF BAY

New York, July 23.—Napoleon is a big, bony gray horse belonging to Peter V. Kilian, of Amityville, L. I. Napoleon looks as if he never had an adventure in all his workaday life, but he has just performed a feat that made the residents of that quiet place wonder if the old plug contained the spirit of the great man whose name he bears.

Last week Napoleon was afflicted with wanderlust. The desire to amble away is not in itself remarkable, but Nap took a mode of departure theretofore unchronicled in such explorations. Kilian's place is on the edge of Great South Bay. The bay is five miles wide at Amityville. Many roads lead about the countryside, but Nap, when he decided to enlarge his geographical education, deliberately entered the bay and began to swim.

Kilian dashed up in time to see the saw-banded steed disappear far out.

"The poor beast is drowned," Kilian said. Thereupon he looked about for another horse to haul his boats and do the other chores.

The next day Justice Green of Farmingdale received a letter from Charles A. Axtman of Amityville. Axtman said that when cruising in a motor boat he had seen a thin, unhappy looking horse on an island in the middle of the bay two and a half miles from either shore. Axtman requested that the animal be rescued.

Kilian and Axtman finally went in a boat to the island. Napoleon was there, weak, hungry and seemingly glad to see his master. The men tied a rope to his neck, fastened the rope to the stern of the boat and started to row back. Napoleon swimming behind. They had gone a mile when Nap changed his mind and reversed his engines. He swam hard for the island, dragging the boat and its occupants.

Finally in disgust Kilian cut the rope and the horse swam back to his island.

But Kilian needed his horse and Axtman was unwilling to let the animal die of starvation; so the two men hired a small steamboat and a scow. Almost the entire population of Amityville got aboard the steamer and went to the island. It took three hours to embark Napoleon on the scow. Then he was brought back in triumph to Amityville and duty.

The residents of Amityville have christened the island St. Helena.

NEW BABY MEANS NO RENT.

Experiment to Increase French Birth Rate to be Tried Out.

Paris, July 23.—Flats in which the birth of a baby frees the tenant of payment of rent for the quarter following, is an experiment in workingmen's housing which is to be started in Paris, where the difficulty of lodging workmen with large families stands in close relation to the vital question of depopulation in France. This experiment for encouraging large families will be tried with four blocks of workmen's flats, built by Charles Stern at Vincennes, an eastern suburb of Paris. The blocks consist of two, three or four-roomed flats at rents respectively of $90, $95 and $80 a year. The profits remaining after the cost of construction and working expenses have been deducted will go to a "maternal canteen" of the district, where mothers nursing babies will be supplied with luncheon and dinner free. The flats include baths, wash houses, library and a dispensary for the care of new-born infants.

GERMS LURK IN FARM PIG STY?

Infantile Paralysis Attacks Girl After Her Foot is Injured

ON NAIL IN HOG PEN

Indianapolis, Ind., July 23.—Dr. I. Leckrone, of Silver Lake, has reported to the state board of health conditions attending a case of poliomyelitis, he is treating which may throw some light, by further investigation by the board, on causes of the disease among children. The child being treated is now at sea. The child being treated by Dr. Leckrone is Georgia Deber. With a companion she played one day last month in a pig pen on her father's farm, from which the pigs had been removed a few days before. In their play both children stepped on nails and punctured the skin on their feet. The companion was not taken ill.

The pigs that had been in the pen, Dr. Leckrone reported, had a strange malady, which caused many of them to become lame without apparent cause, and others died without becoming lame. The owner of the farm had made no effort to fumigate the pen after the pigs were moved. Dr. Leckrone said he had been told of another case near Silver Lake, but knew nothing of it other than hearsay. Several cases of the disease were reported from the vicinity last summer. Two cases have also been reported from Sullivan county, but the board had no specific data in regard to them.

The need of automatic stops for railway trains is emphasized by the report that 171 persons lost their lives and 931 were injured last year in accidents caused by engineers running past danger signals. Such automatic stops are said to be perfectly practicable and to be in successful use on some electric systems.

WHEELING IS NO BASE BALL TOWN

Break There Likely to Come About the First of Next Month.

A PITTSBURG FARM

Wheeling is no baseball town and probably nobody is as thoroughly convinced of this fact as Edward J. Anderson and Everett V. Robinson, the new owners of the club, who risked their ready money when they bought the franchise last winter.

Although they have made their deposit of $2,000 with the Central league and have carried the club along to this time under the most discouraging conditions, neither of the partners has made a cent and both are about ready to quit.

They are under obligations to pay for the club the first of next month according to the agreement with E. F. Perkins and W. W. Irwin, who hold most of the stock in the old company, but the gate receipts have been insufficient to pay expenses much less to afford a surplus to meet payments and unless the time is extended the "blow off" will occur about that time.

While it is a little hard on the owners to lose their time and services and some money in their venture it will really be a disguised blessing if they are forced out of the game there. Two years in the last ten have been profitable in baseball in Wheeling and the year ending in 1934 was the Wheeling club netted just $1,000 over running expenses.

The club has been offered to Pittsburgh, but Barney Dreyfuss, regarded as one of the most astute of the men engaged in the national game, has turned it down time and again. It is understood that he was appealed to not long ago to take it off the hands of the owners and use it as a farm, but he concluded he had enough troubles without owning a minor league team in a town that will not pay.

Then there are Zanesville, Akron, Canton, South Bend, Dayton, Terre Haute and Grand Rapids in the same class and Fort Wayne is not such a good town that there's any need to brag about it. Erie lost money last season, but this year the promoters were shrewd enough to sell season tickets enough to guarantee an average attendance of a thousand people at each game and with the attendance for first all year the attendance has been good.

Youngstown is apparently supporting its club and there has been no word from Springfield. Baseball men are not used to a loss to account for poor attendance and it has been suggested time and again that the minors withdraw the game for a season or so until the element that is working against it has had its day of popularity.

All of this talk grows out of the fact that Wheeling lost to Canton on the home yesterday. Although it was an open lay the owners preferred to play so that Canton can take its off day at home Thursday and Wheeling can do likewise and neither will be at any expense. This also applied to South Bend and Dayton and the Greens and Vets held a combat on the Vets' battlefield. Madden, Brooklyn's famed left-hander, went through the change in good style and allowed but one hit and would not have been scored against but for errors. The scores:

YOUNGSTOWN OUT AFTER GOOD MAN

Phillips May Have Hugo Swartling at First in Few Days.

HE STARTS A DICKER

Youngstown, O., July 23.—It is possible that Hugo Swartling, for three years at first base for Zanesville will take Hugh Tate's place with the Steelmen and not unlikely that he will be in the lineup when the club takes the field again in Wheeling today.

The local team will have to meet Akron, Grand Rapids, Fort Wayne and Terre Haute in the next two weeks and it is necessary to bolster up a bit to keep in the first division.

While the players were taking it easy yesterday Manager Phillips boarded an early train for Pittsburgh Monday to hold a conference with Swartling who the Steelmen purchased last week but who does not want to report. After being notified of his sale to the local club and ordered to report, Swartling wired the Steelmen boss that he did not want to play.

Swartling's refusal to report probably has its inception in a desire to see Zanesville fall in an attempt to realize on him. Tate's fall in an attempt to realize on him, Tate's fall in an attempt to realize on him, Tate's fall in an attempt to realize on him.

Manager Phillips can prevail upon Swartling to come here, which he hopes he can. The Steelmen will have as good a chance of landing the pennant as they did before Tate was hurt. Swartling is a clever player and a good hitter. His long left arm will interfere slightly in rounding into form in a hurry but there is little to fear but that he would be in old time form after a week or two of steady play. Swartling's home is in Pittsburgh.

THORPE DIDN'T HAVE TIME.

Indian Runner Refused Invitation to Visit the King.

New York, July 23.—An amusing incident of the Olympic games is being told at the athletic clubs here. It is said that shortly before the Finland was to sail for London, a Finnish runner named Thorpe, considered the best all-around athlete, "and would like to see you at the palace."

"I don't know much about kings," replied Thorpe, as he grumbled helplessly. "Offer him my regards and tell him I can't get away."

The query went over the side in a kind of stupor. It is said to have been the first time on record that the king's invitation had been refused.

CANTON GETS CATCHER.

Canton, O., July 23.—A second catcher to take the place of Dike Scandon, resigned several days ago, has been signed to help George Texter with the backstop work and from all appearances he is worth more than a period of benchwarming. The new man is William Goh, who some is down near Strasburg, and who is really the property of the Toledo Mud Hens.

RELEASE LEE TRAGRESSER.

St. Paul, July 23.—Catcher Lee Tragresser, purchased by the Zanesville club of the Central league from the St. Paul American association club, has been unconditionally released.

HOLZHAUER WILL ENTER THE RING

Fort Wayne Fighter Will Try to Stage Comeback at Home.

Young Holzhauser, a lad who made his first public appearance as a boxer when Fackey McFarland made a choppy block of Benny Yanker at the baseball park a few years ago, will stage a comeback at Odeon hall in the Suengerbund building next Thursday evening and will go ten rounds with a Cleveland boy at 133 pounds with Jerry Martin, a Cleveland boy, at 133 pounds.

When Holzhauser first fought here it was seen by the fans that he had a wonderful left hand and that he could jab and swing with it as well as his right. He was a good fighter and he gave his promise at that time of making a name for himself in boxing circles.

Little has been heard of him lately and a few days ago he asked for a chance to go on here. Whether he has grown stronger and is a better fighter is a question that will be answered when he goes ten rounds with an opponent strong enough to give him a good battle. Clyde Collins, who will stage the show Thursday, said he was the best boxer Holzhauser has and he consented to give him a chance.

This bout will be staged just preceding the principal event of the evening, which is the bout between Frankie Mason and Ruby Hirsch. These lads are carded for ten rounds and both expect to stay the limit.

UGHT TO TAKE A DAILY.

Eric Times Writer Says Fort Wayne is Showing Signs of Reaction.

A fellow who writes sport notes for the Eric Times says that Fort Wayne is showing signs of reaction in a well developed slump. He ought to take a daily paper. The only slump noticed so far is when the team won two in three from Springfield and bent Gouldat in the last one. Here is the Times man's little piece.

"Close followers of Central league play are of the opinion that the two dark horses, Fort Wayne and Wheeling, have just about shot their wad as regards their sports and that have startled the fans of every city in the circuit. By that, however, they do not intimate that the Steelies or Blenkins are out of the race for the flag. On the contrary, they are two teams well equipped to show signs of a reaction after their wonderful sports in the first division. Both Fort Wayne and Wheeling are beginning to show signs of a reaction after their wonderful sports in the first division. Both Fort Wayne and Wheeling are beginning to show signs of a reaction after their wonderful sports in the first division.

UGHT TO TAKE A DAILY.

Eric Times Writer Says Fort Wayne is Showing Signs of Reaction.

A fellow who writes sport notes for the Eric Times says that Fort Wayne is showing signs of reaction in a well developed slump. He ought to take a daily paper. The only slump noticed so far is when the team won two in three from Springfield and bent Gouldat in the last one. Here is the Times man's little piece.

"Close followers of Central league play are of the opinion that the two dark horses, Fort Wayne and Wheeling, have just about shot their wad as regards their sports and that have startled the fans of every city in the circuit. By that, however, they do not intimate that the Steelies or Blenkins are out of the race for the flag. On the contrary, they are two teams well equipped to show signs of a reaction after their wonderful sports in the first division. Both Fort Wayne and Wheeling are beginning to show signs of a reaction after their wonderful sports in the first division.

BERT ANNIS NOT ASKING BENEFIT

Don't Want Grand Rapids People to Hold a Big Booster Day.

WANT 'EM TO ATTEND

Bert Annis has turned down a proposition at Grand Rapids to give him a public benefit with tickets at a dollar each because it looks too much like peddling slot strings with a wooden leg as an excuse.

He has had bad luck enough to entitle him to some sort of a demonstration at the hands of the public, but he is asking patronage for an amusement enterprise that he considers worth the price of admission. Summing up the situation the baseball fan and Grand Rapids has a few good ones, decided that by giving a public benefit game the city would fall in line with Canton, Zanesville, Wheeling, South Bend and a few others which admit that there is not enough public spirit and love of baseball to support the national game.

Some were made for him in front of his club. There are a few good individual players on the club, but they have been there too long and what is needed most is a general shake up and the infusion of some young blood and a lot of slinger.

There is a devil-may-care spirit in the team now that will keep the owner on earth, as it is not of any benefit in winning games and somehow Central league fans think a winning club is the only one entitled to patronage.

Annis' stand is the right one. Baseball that has to be supported by passing the hat is not worth while. This old rag about baseball advertising a town has been ridden to death and there is every probability that business would be as good in all the towns on the Central league circuit if the clubs were all removed.

The loyalty that follows success only will not help baseball. There ought to be civic pride in all the teams because they occupy rather a different position from other amusement enterprises. A theatrical company or a circus does not go out the representative of any place in particular.

Every baseball club is the particular representative of some town or city and whether it is a good advertising medium or not it is sent out to conquer and if it fights a good battle win or lose it is entitled to more than a life when it gets back home to meet the enemy.

Claude Varnell has always taken the same position taken by Bert Annis. He holds that good baseball ought to draw and that every team whether it is a minor league or major league should have enough money to pay expenses and yield a profit.

HOW THE BEST?

Citizens of Frankfort Aroused Since Attack on Pastor.

Frankfort, Ind., July 23.—Everett Hopkings, a young man, who assaulted Rev. J. C. Burkhardt, pastor of the Christian church of this city, Saturday evening, was released from custody upon a bond given by relatives and friends of a Lafayette brewery by which Hank employed. The condition of Rev. Burkhardt remains unchanged and is such as to cause anxiety for the family much alarm. Citizens have taken sides in the affair and the feelings between the "wet" and "dry" elements are running high, such as to cause a number of personal encounters during the day.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH

Become necessary when those that nature provides cease to give the owner the desired degree of comfort that good health demands. Some people are apt to neglect their needs in this direction until it requires the removal of all natural teeth and a substitution of artificial ones. All will agree that a natural tooth restored to a healthy condition by a filling or perhaps a crown is much more desirable than artificial teeth on a plate, but under certain conditions it is impossible to avoid having an entire full or partial set of artificial teeth.

The principal thing to be desired in getting artificial teeth is a good fit, a natural appearance and the best quality of materials.

THE GREATEST ART IS THE CON-CEALMENT OF ART.

My method of making and adjusting artificial teeth appeals especially to those whose gums have receded after the extraction of teeth, and whose sunken faces need the services of one who has made a special study of building out faces—artificially restoring lost tissue—and who can reproduce the natural expression of the mouth and restore the youthful contour of the face.

Call and have your teeth examined and get an estimate on the work you wish to have done. No charge for this.

PLAN FOR YOUTH TO LIFT NATION

Pastor Wants the Epworth League to Be Center of Movement.

OVER ALL THE WORLD

Chicago, July 23.—A nation-wide movement for uplift of rural communities and enlistment of young people, both in and out of the church, was outlined at the Desplaines camp meeting in an address by Rev. Dr. Wilbur F. Sheridan, Chicago, general secretary of the Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal denomination. It was Epworth League day.

"The movement was decided on," Dr. Sheridan said, "at a meeting of the Illinois state cabinet of the Epworth league at the Quiver Lake assembly, near Havana, Illinois, the first state to adopt the eightfold program."

Here is eightfold plan.

The eightfold plan includes the following items:

1. The formation of an Epworth league chapter in every church.
2. A 10 per cent. increase in every existing chapter.
3. An increase of 2,000 subscribers in this state to our paper, the Epworth Herald.
4. A campaign of personal evangelism.
5. A Bible training class in every chapter.
6. A mission study class in every chapter.
7. The backing up by every chapter of some benevolence, like an orphanage, hospital, or similar institution.
8. A constructive recreational program.

"Our recreational program is the newest and, therefore, is worthy of special emphasis," said Dr. Sheridan. "We want to make every league a social center. Young people are not to plan simply for their own social or athletic enjoyment, but are to be of real service to every community."

"It is not necessary for me to declare whether I favor or do not favor the paragraph in our church discipline which specifies dancing, card-playing, and the theater as amusements to be avoided under penalty of expulsion from the church, but we want to inaugurate a policy that will not make these rules necessary."

ART SMITH IS AT HOME.

Booking Company Cancels His Engagement in Fort Wayne.

Art Smith, the young aviator whose home is in this city, with his mechanic, Winfred Peters, arrived home Monday night, coming from Hillsdale, Mich., where for several days he has held spellbound large and appreciative crowds who witnessed his daily flights and aerial capers. The young man will remain here about one week, unless called to Chicago to make a trial for an air pilot's license.

The engagement for Fort Wayne, July 27 and 28, on which dates Smith was to have made exhibition flights at the Driving park, has been cancelled, and the next official engagement of the local aviator will be in the Dakotas.

OLYMPIC GAMES ENDED.

Points Gained in Yachting Events Puts Sweden in Lead.

Stockholm, July 23.—The Olympic games concluded yesterday with the finish of the yacht races. With the points gained in the yachting events, Sweden leads the nations in number of points in all events, Sweden's total being 133, only four points ahead of the United States, in spite of the fact that there was no American representative in the yachting competitions. Great Britain stands third with a total of 70 points. The United States leads in firsts, with 25 to Sweden's 23.

THINK OHIO MAN WILL WIN.

Dr. J. H. Beal Most Probable Successor of Dr. Wiley.

Washington, July 23.—Members of the Ohio congressional delegation were confident that President Taft, within a few days, will nominate Dr. James H. Beal, of Scioto, Ohio, to be chief of the bureau of chemistry, succeeding Dr. Harvey Wiley. White house officials would not confirm the report that Dr. Beal had been chosen for the post that became so well known during Dr. Wiley's regime. But it was admitted that he was more prominent in the president's mind than any other man.

A field of forty that confronted the president several months ago has been narrowed down to less than half a dozen. Among others mentioned are Dr. H. T. Barnard, of the Indiana department of health, and Lucius P. Brown, pure food inspector for Tennessee.

NO OTHER HAS JOB LIKE HIS

Dr. J. H. Stolper is "Public Defender" in State of Oklahoma.

GIVES SQUARE DEAL

DR. J. H. STOLPER, "First Public Defender" of Oklahoma. Guthrie, Okla., July 23.—The penniless and friendless who have been deprived of their legal rights in Oklahoma will henceforth be assured a square deal. The "public defender" stands ready to fight their battles for them, to the supreme court if needs be, and without pay other than the salary he draws from the state.

The public defender's office was created by the last legislature. It is his duty to assume the defense of the personal liberties and property rights of all who cannot afford to hire lawyers to protect them. No other state or nation has any such official.

The first public defender, Dr. J. H. Stolper, has already demonstrated the value of state legal advice for the defenseless. For instance, he has already prosecuted and won hundreds of suits for Indian children who were being defrauded by dishonest guardians leagued with corrupt court officials. The grantees have been forced to give up their spoils.

CARRIED MINISTER'S MAIL.

Dog That Knew Patterns of Rural Route Killed by Interurban Car.

Valparaiso, Ind., July 23.—The progress of civilization in Valparaiso has removed from public notice Teddy, the pet dog of James J. Gary, a veteran mail carrier, who died a half dozen years ago. Teddy met death the other day while endeavoring to cross a street in front of a moving Valparaiso and Northern electric interurban train. The dog came into Gary's possession when a puppy and acquired the habit of accompanying the mailman over his route. After the animal became acquainted with the patrons Mr. Gary entrusted the mail to the dog, and it faithfully delivered it to the people, who had come to watch for the animal's appearance. Mr. Gary was found dead on the floor of the carriers' room at the postoffice. The dog never became accustomed to his master's continued absence from the post of duty, and for six years it had been the habit of Teddy to travel the route, stopping to wait at each house, where kindness had been shown it. Every man, woman and child in Valparaiso came to know the dog, which stood motionless for hours in front of the postoffice, seemingly expecting the arrival of its master, and Teddy's untimely end is being mourned almost as much as would be the death of a prominent man.

W. L. TAYLOR VISITS CITY.

Says He Will Not Be Candidate for Republican Governor.

W. L. Taylor, of Indianapolis, one of Indiana's leading republicans, was a guest last night at the Anthony hotel. Mr. Taylor's name has been favorably mentioned in many parts of the state as a possible candidate for governor on the republican ticket, but he declares he has no intentions of entering the gubernatorial race.

Mr. Taylor stated last night that he had not been keeping very careful watch on political matters, and that his trip to Fort Wayne at this time was only on business connected with traction affairs. Mr. Taylor is general counsel for the Toledo and Chicago interurban railway.

Local Motorcyclists Back from F. A. M. Meet and Speed Carnival.

Samuel Davis and "Happy" Sears, two local motorcycle enthusiasts, have returned from Columbus, O., where they attended the national meet and speed carnival of the Federation of American Motorcyclists. More than 1,500 motorcyclists attended the annual gathering.

COLLEGE STREET WILL BE CLOSED

Piling is Being Driven and Work Will Be Rushed by Contractor.

NOTES OF CITY HALL

Until the work of separating grades at College street has been completed the thoroughfare will be closed to the public in order not to retard the completion of the big task.

Members of the board of public works will insist on as little delay as is consistent with good work and will get the street opened up as soon as possible. It is contended that by leaving a temporary opening while the work is in progress the workmen will be retarded, as that no great hardship will be imposed by closing it entirely.

Contractors who have work on hand for the city were called before the board and told that they must hurry it through. The general excuse for delay is the scarcity of labor and it is known to the board that inability to get men is holding back the construction companies.

Back on Collections.

A report of the operations of the waterworks department shows that between $10,000 and $12,000 in water rents is uncollected and that there is a deficit for the first six months of the year caused by delay of the consumers.

The receipts for the first six months of the year were $87,076.64 and the disbursements $71,083.19, but if the collections were all in the books would show a surplus.

DISTRICT GRAIN MEN HERE.

Hold Meeting to Discuss Proposed Agricultural Station.

About twenty-five prominent grain dealers of the Twelfth district are in Fort Wayne today for a conference over the establishment of the proposed government agricultural stations in the different counties of the district. The men are meeting this afternoon at the Commercial club.

It is expected that some action pertaining to the crop improvement bureau movement will be taken. A plan has been suggested for the establishment of agricultural stations in each county, and those in Indiana are to work in conjunction with the experimental station at Purdue university. An expert at each station will instruct the farmers in securing the greatest possible production from their land.

PHOTOGRAPHERS TALK TARIFF.

National Association in Convention in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, July 23.—The tariff, so far as it applies to the importation of supplies used in the business, will be one of the questions taken up in the thirty-second annual convention of the Photographers Association of America, which opened here today. Another subject to be discussed will be the advisability of the camera men forming an adjunct to the association to be known as the "Copyright League." Many of the delegates claim that their pictures are "stolen" by periodicals. It is said that the matter will be brought to the attention of congress.

Prominent photographers from all parts of the country are attending the convention. The opening session was given over to routine business.

SHIPPING FROM THE SOUTH.

Michigan Peach Crop Reported Very Light This Year.

"The Michigan peach crop is reported to be very light this year—in some localities almost a failure," said Charles S. Bash today, "and the result is that we are compelled to ship in the fruit from the south. Just now some very fine Texas Albertas are reaching the Fort Wayne market. The failure of the Michigan crop means that the season will be a very short one and housewives who desire to eat peaches this year will do well to get busy at once."

OFFERS PLAN FOR UNIVERSAL COIN

Levy Bill Proposes to Revolutionize Foreign Exchange.

BEAR VALUE ON FACE

Washington, D. C., July 23.—Representative Levy, of New York, who numbers J. Pierpont Morgan among his constituents, has prepared a bill, the passage of which, he declares will revolutionize the present system of foreign exchange and create a simple international currency.

According to Mr. Levy, who is a banker, American tourists and business men have suffered for years at the hands of foreign money exchanges. In many countries American business has been kept out because of the clumsiness of the methods of exchange.

His bill provides that the secretary of the treasury shall issue in exchange for gold coin of the United States or gold of equal fineness, notes which are payable at the treasury or any of the sub-treasuries in United States gold coin.

SAVE MONEY FOR STATE.

CHICAGO LABOR LEADER DIES.

"Skiensky" Madden, Famous Union Man, Succumbs to Tuberculosis.

Chicago, Ill., July 23.—Martin E. "Skiensky" Madden, one of the labor leaders of Chicago, died of tuberculosis yesterday at Lake Villa, Ill., where he had been for nearly a year. For years he was at the head of the Associated Building Trades and was a prominent figure in many labor disputes. Madden lost his influence after he had been convicted of blackmailing in connection with the call of strikes.

NURSE STILL MISSING.

General Alarm Fails to Locate Miss Snodgrass.

New York, July 23.—Although a general alarm was sent out yesterday no word of Miss Dorcas I. Snodgrass, the missing Mount Vernon nurse, has been received either by the police or the young woman's friends. Hopes that Miss Snodgrass might have gone to the home of her brother-in-law, John L. Crider, in Oakland, Cal., or to relatives in Martins Bridge, W. Va., were dispelled when telegrams were received today saying that Miss Snodgrass had not arrived in either of those places.

WILD BIRD PRESERVE.

Immense Island Near New Orleans Purchased for Purpose.

New Orleans, La., July 23.—Marsh Island, containing about 74,000 acres, has been bought by E. A. McIlhenny, of Avery Island, and will be added, it is understood, to 13,000 acres deeded a few months ago to the state by Mr. McIlhenny and others to form a great preserve for wild birds. The purchase price was $148,000. Several easterners are said to be associated with Mr. McIlhenny in the enterprise.

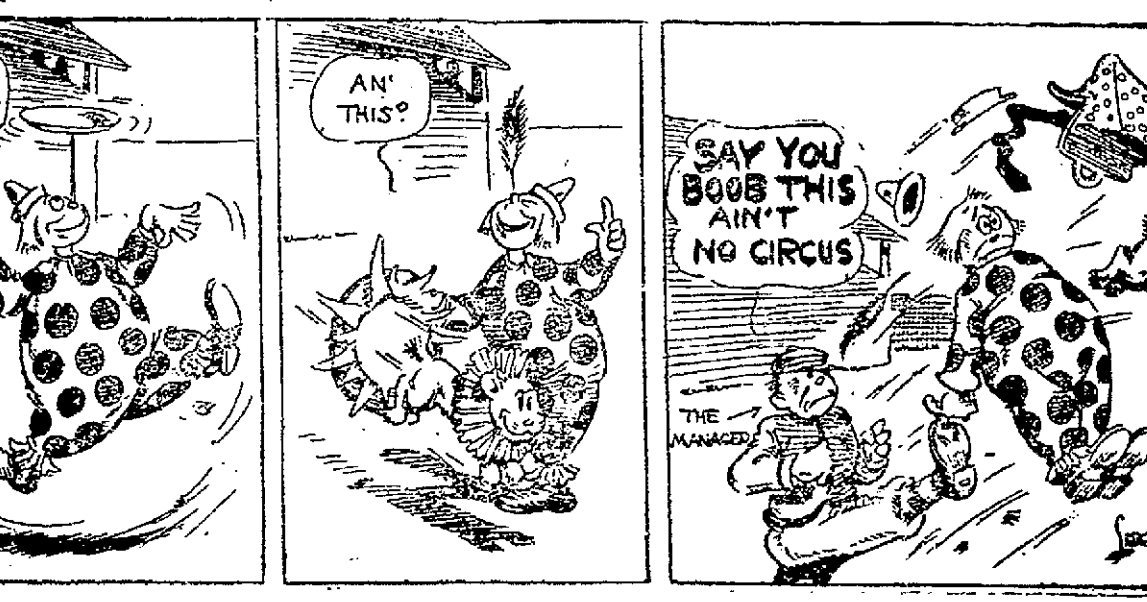

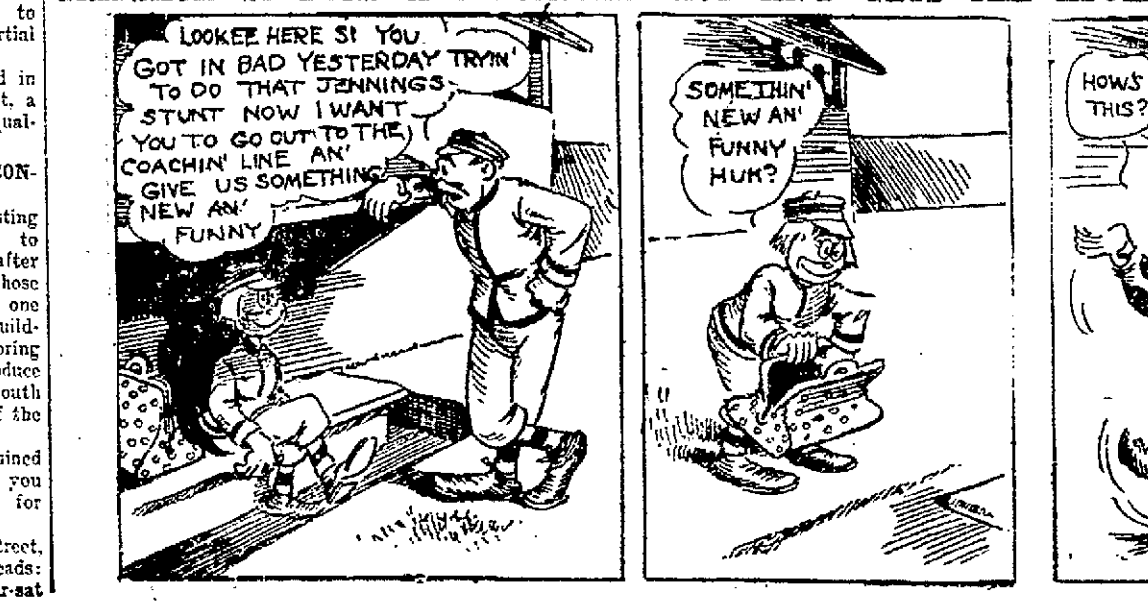

BLITZ-BECKER SELL STORE.

Firm Will Continue Only a Wholesale Tobacco House.

The Blitz-Becker cigar store on Calhoun street has been sold to Ely & Warner, proprietors of the cigar stand in the Centerville hotel and of the Bungalow, on East Main street. The new owners will take possession of the furniture and a portion of the stock on September 10.

The firm of Blitz-Becker is to retire from the retail tobacco business, but will continue as a jobbing house in the line of tobacco, cigars, pipes and other articles used by those who enjoy the weed.

GRIPSACK SI DOES A MARCELINE ACT AND GETS THE HOOK.

COLEY'S A RIP-SNORTIN' FIRE-EATER.

Spectacular South Carolina Governor Thrives on Trouble, and When It Comes to Large, Vituperative Talk, He Has no Living Equal.

GOV. COLEMAN E. BLEASE, OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

"Coley" is his name. The northern newspapers call him Gov. Coleman E. Blease, of South Carolina, but down where the cotton grows it's just "Coley."

He's the man who's in trouble deep enough to drown most men. The investigating committee of the state legislature has brought charges of graft ranging from traffic in pardons to rackets from "blind tigers." William J. Burns, detective, sir, has been on the job down in the old Palmetto state and he says he has enough evidence against the governor to cause impeachment proceedings and possibly an indictment by a grand jury.

How is all this talk effecting "Coley?" When he heard about the charges he shouted: "Liars." Then he got rid of a few choice epithets such as "dirty set of sneaks," "cowardly little puppy," "skunks," and similar terms of endearment.

Thomas B. Felder, an Atlanta attorney, and Ira R. Jones, present chief justice of the supreme court of South Carolina, are urging charges against him.

Referring to the whole bunch he exclaimed: "The charges furnished by Felder, Jones and that committee are false, and I will shoot it out with any man who comes and asserts to my face that they are true."

He's a fighting, rip-roaring, howling, modern lion tamer is this governor. It is always a safe bet that he will do the thing that everyone said he would not do.

Tall and slender, just turning 45; a big, strong head, covered with a mass of thick, jet black hair, lined with silver; straight and wiry, not bony; a black mustache; as nervous as a young colt; eyes as dark and keen as a tiger's—that's "Coley."

He was famous even in his college days. He represented the University of South Carolina in an oratorical contest and was awarded the medal—for a few days. Then someone charged—they're always charging something—that the speech had been delivered several years before in a small college. It had been published in a book of oratory, they said. They asked "Coley" to give the medal back. As a substitute they gave him a watch chain.

Some persons might have buried the chain. He still wears it. He possesses in superabundance that first quality of a politician—nerve. While the story of plagiarism was at its height "Coley" announced himself a candidate for the lower house of the state legislature. He won. Then he became state senator and later mayor of Newberry, his home town. Finally he went after the governorship and got the job.

Since he took up residence in the governor's mansion he has furnished the best vaudeville show ever staged in the south. There's a surprise every day of two.

Chief among the charges against him is that he has pardoned criminals in greater number than ever before in the history of the state.

One day he went to the penitentiary and sent for a certain convict. Surprised, the man appeared.

"Go home!" said "Coley," and the convict went forth a free man.

In a recent message to the legislature he used the words "lie" and "liars" thirteen times.

He declares that if impeached and removed from office he will run for United States senator. If not impeached he will undoubtedly be a candidate for re-election to the governorship.

Dazzling fireworks are certain in either event. He never crouches. He stands up full height and hits back with all his might.

HOISTED FIRST FLAG IN SCHOOL

Two Villages Have Dispute as to Where Honor

Belongs.

BOTH FIGHT CASES

Boston, Mass., July 23.—As the raising of the United States flag on school buildings in this state and in other sections of the country is now a common event, it is worthy of note that two places in Massachusetts claim the honor of being the first in the country to place the stars and stripes on a schoolhouse.

On Catamount Hill, Colerain, in 1812, a flag was raised on a log school building, according to the claim of the Catamount Hill association, was the first that ever waved from the roof of a schoolhouse in the United States.

The republicans or loyalists, as they were then called, because they were loyal to the American government and in favor of the war, composed the majority in Colerain; their opponents, the federalists, or "feds," as they were sometimes called, sympathized with the English in the controversy which led to the war of 1812. The feeling between the two was intense, and the loyalists planned to show their strength and their principles by holding what in these days would be called "a patriotic rally."

Amasa Shippee, the first volunteer for the war from Colerain, took an active interest in this movement and through his efforts, aided by his wife and a few others, a flag was made and unfurled in the presence of a large company assembled from near and far.

Claims of City of Bedford.

Plans are being made by the Catamount Hill association to celebrate in a fitting manner early in the fall the one hundredth anniversary of this event. While the flag at Catamount Hill was undoubtedly the first one ever flung to the breeze from a school building, the city of New Bedford has a just claim to the distinction of having within its borders "the first school in the country to raise the United States flag and make the use of it a permanent feature of public school administration."

Soon after the attack upon Fort Sumter, Sylvanus Hutchinson, principal of the Fifth street school of New Bedford, secured contributions from his pupils and their parents for the purpose of a flag which was raised on the roof of the building May 11, 1861, with appropriate exercises. There were patriotic songs, speeches by prominent citizens, among whom was ex-Governor Clifford, and there was great enthusiasm on the part of young and old. When news of a union victory was received after a battle had been fought, this flag was hoisted as a signal of rejoicing, and for four years served its purpose—that of stimulating patriotism among the pupils and the community.

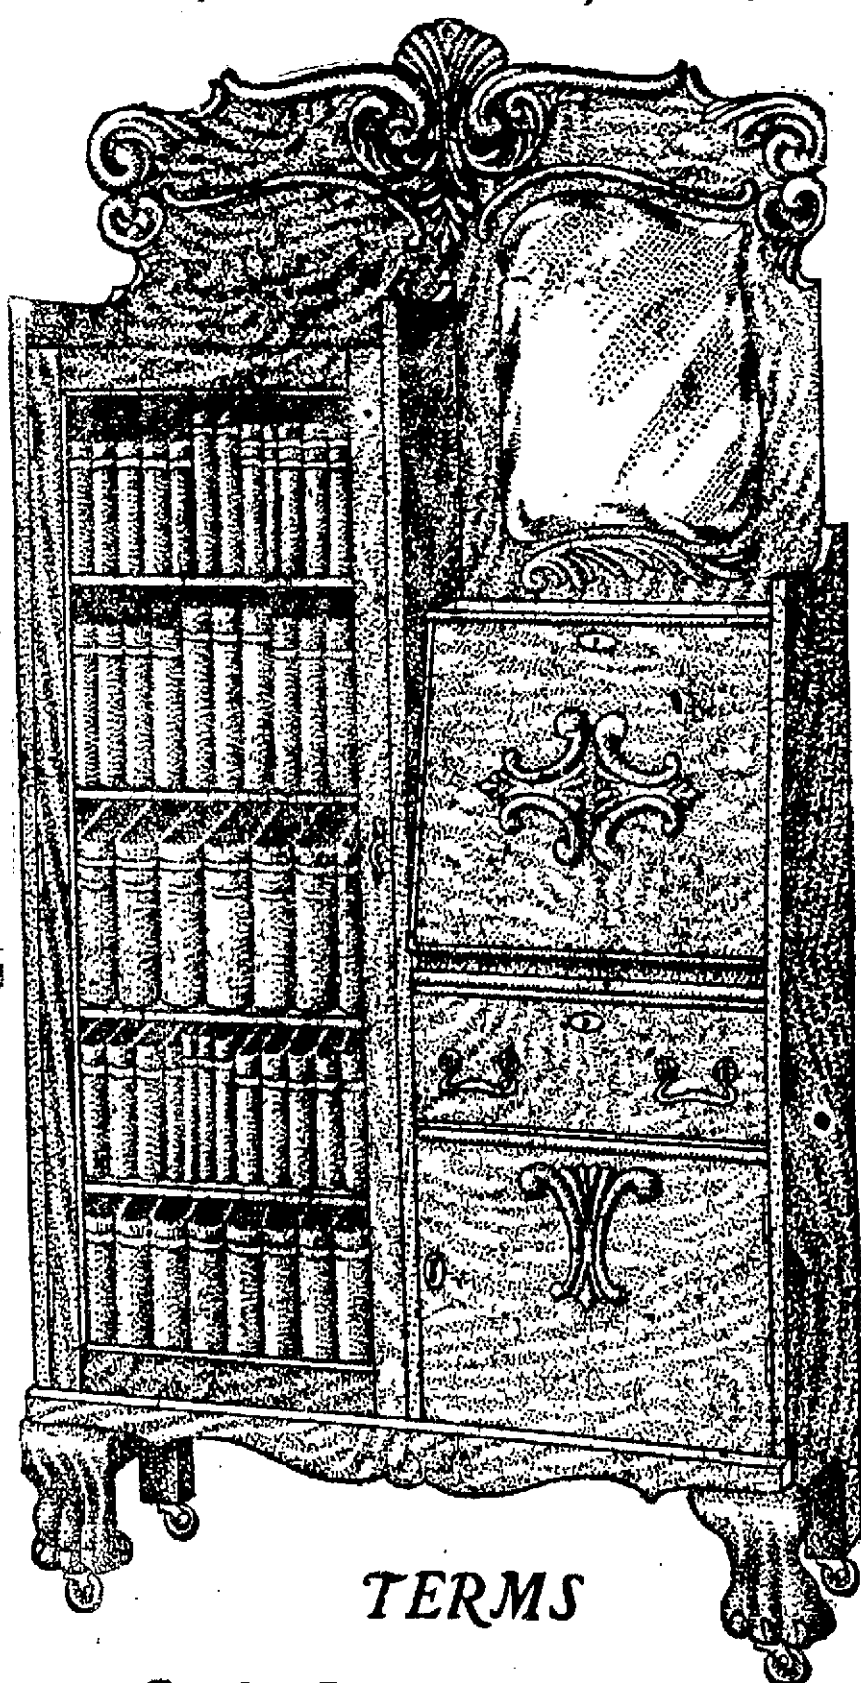

New Flag Substituted. At the close of the war a new flag was substituted in its place. James S. Barrell, who succeeded Mr. Hutchinson as principal of the school, and Miss Betsey B. Winslow, an assistant, who has since served many years as one of the school board of New Bedford, purchased the second flag with money raised by the pupils. This was carried in the great Fourth of July procession in 1865, when the schools and citizens celebrated the close of the war.

There is a bronze tablet on the front of the school building in commemoration of the historic event of the flag raising of May 11, 1865, which was dedicated at the fortieth anniversary celebration of the first flag raising. A large portrait of Sylvanus Hutchinson, principal of the school in 1861, was also on exhibition.

BEGS SIX DOCTORS FOR LIFE.

Woman Pleads that They Save Youth Hit by Her Auto.

New York, July 23.—With a frantic woman sitting in an adjoining room, imploring them to do whatever lay in their power to save the life of a youth who had been struck by her automobile, six physicians, in addition to the regular staff, worked five hours in vain over the unconscious victim at St. Joseph's hospital, Far Rockaway. When the announcement was made to the woman that the young man had died the strain was too great and she became hysterical. The woman is Mrs. Walter C. Stearns, wife of the wealthy president of the Villa Stearns company, silk importers, of 487 Broadway. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with her chauffeur, she left her summer home at Cedarhurst, L. I.

I. Her machine was proceeding slowly down Ocean avenue, Cedarhurst, when it collided with a bicycle ridden by Antoine Denet, a 20-year-old Frenchman. Denet was not thrown, but merely fell from his wheel. In falling, however, the back of his head struck a large stone. The victim of the accident had been in this country only six weeks. He was a valet for Dr. William B. Anderson of 825 Madison avenue, who has a summer home at Cedarhurst, L. I.

BULLET SPLITS ON SKULL.

Physicians Remove Portion of Ball from Youth's Temple.

Shelbyville, Ind., July 23.—An unusual situation was discovered this evening in the case of Ernest Strickler, 20 years old, who shot himself in the head a week ago last Sunday, either accidentally or with suicidal intent. It was found that about one-third of the bullet had not entered his skull. The ball had split and the smaller portion coursed around his skull just beneath the skin to the left temple. It was removed this evening. The rest of the bullet is believed by surgeons to have gone almost through the boy's brain. Though it was believed at first there was no hope for the victim it is now thought he may recover, as he has regained consciousness, but is not able to talk clearly enough to explain the shooting.

Evansville Man and Wife Will Adopt Girl Baby.

Evansville, Ind., July 23.—A two-weeks-old baby was left on the doorstep of William Rush's home near the interurban line running to Princeton. It is said a man carrying the baby and a suit case alighted from an interurban car late last night. The foundling was left with a lavish supply of clothes of fine quality. Mr. and Mrs. Rush will adopt it.

Attending the National Convention of the Walther League in Fort Wayne

Corresponding Secretary—Carl Rehm, of Logansport, and Wm. Wefel, of Cleveland.

Treasurer—A. Busse, of Buffalo and Paul Hoppe, of Fort Wayne.

General Field Secretary—Prof. F. A. Klein, of Fort Wayne.

Committee Chairmen—Hoppe, H. G. Pfeiffer, Fort Wayne; E. H. Koepke, Milwaukee; Entertainment, O. Siemon, Laporte; R. Wolf, Fort Wayne.

Withdrew His Resignation.

Prof. W. A. Klein, of this city, who has been the national field secretary for several years, had tendered his resignation earlier in the sessions because of the many other duties he had to attend to, but there was such a strong pressure brought to bear on him that he was led to reconsider and consented to accept re-election. Hence no other name was recommended by the nominating committee.

Mr. Ehbert is the present president of the national association. He has a strong support for re-election. Rev. Mr. Gotsch, of Cleveland, who is his competitor for the honor, is one of the prominent members of the league.

Assessment of Members.

One of the matters of business, that came before the convention at the session this forenoon that caused considerable discussion was the introduction of a resolution making an assessment of $1 a year on each member of the league for the maintenance of the national association. The general sentiment favored the assessment, but many thought this too large an amount and finally the resolution was so changed that an appeal be made to each one of the members to make a free will offering each year for the support of the national body.

This was unanimously passed and many responded by making their offerings for the present year.

Among the addresses made at the forenoon session, after the devotional services conducted by Rev. H. C. Jauss, of Bingen, Ind., was one on "The Hopeless Question," by Rev. F. Pieper, of Cleveland. Other addresses were made by Prof. F. A. Klein, of Fort Wayne, the national field secretary, and delegates from this and other states.

Resolutions Passed.

The resolutions introduced and passed at the sessions today favored the use of the English language, in part, for the discussions on the floor of the convention and the revision of the constitution printed in both the German and English languages. Addresses were made supporting these resolutions and they were unanimously passed.

Prizes Awarded.

As the result of the contests held at the hall last evening the following prizes were awarded: Hunting Mr. Raffles—Miss Gertrude Helling; tag contest—Miss Lillian Mentz, of Los Angeles, Cal., and H. H. Balk, of Detroit, Mich.; card games—Miss Laura Bock, of Detroit, and Garland Daniels, of Peru; doll—Miss Frieda Zeck, of Logansport; picture—Miss Minnie Buick, of Fort Wayne; corn—Miss Malinda Gussenkamp, of Fort Wayne.

Visit Knitting Mills.

After the adjournment of the convention this afternoon the members of the league, on invitation of Manager T. F. Thieme, intend to visit the Fort Wayne Knitting Mills. They will be shown through the great establishment and also visit the club house for the employees, which is a model of its kind.

Directors' Report.

At the session of the convention on Monday afternoon the report of the board of directors was made by E. H. Galwe, the chairman. It showed great growth in membership during the year.

The organization of new districts in Missouri and Pennsylvania was recommended as were the revision of the constitution, the taking up of systematic charity work and the getting in touch with other young people's societies of the Lutheran church.

The field secretary reported that he had visited practically all of the societies of the league and found progress and enthusiasm everywhere. The state field secretaries also reported gains in societies and membership.

Question Debated.

One of the interesting features of the afternoon was the debate between members of the Michigan and Indiana districts, the question for discussion being: "Resolved, That the German army system is beneficial to the country." E. A. Marklewitz and A. W. Rousseau, of Michigan, had the affirmative and O. Koenig and R. Wolf, of Fort Wayne, the negative. The contest was decided in favor of the Michigan district.

Resolution Committee.

The resolutions committee appointed yesterday consists of O. Gotsch, H. Balk, Prof. Mackeworth, Miss H. Schreiner and Miss L. Burgwart.

Closing Service Speakers.

The speakers for the closing service of the convention, held Wednesday evening, will be Rev. E. Bueger, of Kenosha, Wis., who will speak in German, and Rev. F. J. Lankau, of Napoleon, O., whose address will be in English. The farewell remarks will be made by Rev. Ph. Wambegans.

The field day exercises will be held Thursday in Foster park. For this a great program of events has been arranged, games and sports of various kinds being prominent. There will be a basket picnic dinner at 12 o'clock and the athletic events will begin at 2 o'clock. In the forenoon at 10 o'clock there will be a game of baseball.

Social This Evening.

This evening there will be an ice cream social on the Emmons grounds in Emmons hall, the ladies serving refreshments. The Packard City band will furnish the band music. An orchestra will also be present and participate in the musical program of the evening.

Delegate Called Home.

Miss Bertha Haller, of St. Louis, Mo., delegate from the Holy Cross Young People's society of that place, was called home last evening on account of the fatal illness of her sister. A telegram asking her to leave for home at once was received by Miss Haller last evening and she left on the 9 o'clock Wabash train.

Reception to Delegates.

The reception to the visiting leaguers held last evening at the hall was a most enjoyable affair and largely attended. The members of the Fort Wayne Lutheran City League were the hosts and the musical program was furnished by Krimmel's orchestra.

is the said parade. It was there with the real goods from stem to stern, with the "glittering, golden, gorgeous, gigantic, gladdening, glamorous" but, when, back up. The circus bolt has been shot.

The truth is that circus parade adjectives have been badly overworked in instances where they really did not fit, and now with the coming of "the greatest show on earth" one can scarcely do justice to the pageant with which the circus folks delighted thousands this morning.

The Performance.

The first performance began at 2 o'clock this afternoon and will be repeated entirely at 8 o'clock tonight.

Coming down just to work-a-day English as it is spoken by the man in the street, it may be said that the Barnum & Bailey circus is a bully good show and fully repays a visit from even the most blasé circus patron. It is almost hopeless to try to review this circus other than to say it is the very last word in circusology—far and away the best ever presented. As well try to name every leaf on an elm tree to try and prove its beauty. There are many high spots on the program, but they have to be high indeed to stand out in relief against such a bewildering, kaleidoscopic scene of all kinds of daring and skillful activity as that presented for more than two hours in three rings, two stages, a hippodrome track and in the air. Of Miss May Wirth's dashing equestrianism there is no adjective, even in the resourceful circus language, to express the wonder of her grace and daring. She is a sure fire hit and her youthful beauty and modest demeanor enhance her artistry immeasurably.

Another Fine Feature.

La Belle Victoria's performance on the swinging wire is another grand item on the bill. She uses no balancing medium, not even an outstretched arm, walking high in the air upon a steel wire with hands at her side, glancing all about the big tent. The Mikado's royal troupe of athletes were a decided novelty with their exhibitions of Japanese wrestling and jiu jitsu. The trained animal numbers were superb, the elephant ball game being a laughable novelty. Great riders with names that are generations old in the circus appeared in masses, and the air at one time was filled with flying flights of the most expert trapezists of the world, the mid-air dives and flights of the Siegrist-Silbon troupe being of the hair-raising order. Kate Sandwina, the female Hercules, and the Swiss Berna brothers gave unusual exhibitions of strength entirely different from the usual run of such acts.

Many Clowns There.

Champ Clark and "Toddy" had their innings, too. The clowns got after them in good natured fashion and "Toddy's" hat was kicked about the ring.

The show opened with the spectacle, "Cleopatra," altogether the most gorgeous and stupendous affair ever given under canvas. A perfectly trained ballet was one of its interesting features and the wordless play was perfectly mimed. The wardrobe and properties alone cost a fortune and if the circus offered nothing else it would well repay a visit. The zoo is larger than ever before and much time can be profitably spent among the common and rarer types brought together under canvas.

The trade-marked title of "the greatest show on earth" is certainly lived up to more generously than ever before, and none can afford to miss seeing this latest and greatest development of the circus idea.

The effectiveness of the spectacle, "Cleopatra," will be enhanced at tonight's performance by the calcium light effects.

obeyed, handing out gold, currency and silver to the sum of between $140 and $146.

Then with the command, "Don't you move out of this room or cry out for ten minutes, or I'll blow your head off," the robber turned and walked out and disappeared down the tracks.

Agent Mosher was so badly frightened that he cannot give a good description of the hold-up man. He noticed, however, that he was of medium size, wore a blue suit and a cap, but his face and head were so covered by the mask that the agent did not get a look at them.

Entrance to the ticket office was through the baggage room, No. 38, the last train to stop at that station at night, had passed a few moments before and Mr. Mosher was making up his reports preparatory to closing the office for a few hours. He sat with his back toward the door and did not hear or see the robber until confronted by him.

mony, but it was said she gave in detail all the knowledge in her possession concerning the charge of Rosenthal that certain police officers were sharing in the profits of tendorin gambling houses, and told of the relations between her husband and Lieutenant Becker.

Mrs. Rosenthal came to the building under the escort of a special officer detailed from the district attorney's office and was accompanied by her sister.

"Do you think the police would protect me from their own kind?" she asked a representative of the district attorney. "I am afraid of my life. Since Herman was murdered the police made all kinds of efforts to see me. I have high officials call me up. Why, Deputy Commissioner Dougherty tried to get me yesterday. Why should the police want to see me unless they wanted to find out how much I know before I should go before the grand jury?"

gation of the killing alone, as he is of the belief that the police department will give no real aid.

The surrender of Vallon may be followed by the voluntary appearance of the other gangsters known to have been in the "murder car" the night of the killing. Besides Vallon there were Harry Horwitz, best known under his gang name of "Gib, the Blood," "Dago Frank," an eastside gangster; "Lefty" Louie and "Whitey" Lewis.

Vallon has nothing of the appearance of a gangster of the meaner sort. His appearance, at police headquarters dumfounded the desk sergeant and he had to convince the detectives as to his identity before they locked him up.

Came in Taxicab.

Vallon drew up at headquarters in a taxicab and loungers say a fastidiously dressed, dapper little chap stepped lightly out from the car and, swinging a cane from a gloved hand, mounted the steps of the building.

"Kindly tell me where the detective bureau is," he asked.

Then Vallon appeared before Lieutenant McNally and gave himself up and was locked up before that astonished official could summon an officer.

Commissioner Dougherty will give Vallon the third degree today to learn further of those who hired the gunmen to kill Rosenthal.

That some of the gunmen have fled the city is believed by detectives who add that the gangsters are probably hiding in Chicago.

Commissioner Dougherty thinks that from some one of the gunmen he will be able to obtain a confession that will result in bringing to book those higher up. The commissioner says that nearly a score of men played parts in the plot that ended in the killing of Rosenthal in front of the Hotel Metropole and from among them he expects to find a "squealer."

After Real Conspirators.

The information has gone forth for the benefit of the east side gangmen that those who shot down Rosenthal will be leniently treated if "those higher up" can be reached as the real conspirators.

District Attorney Whitman, when told that counsel for Shapiro was ready to have the chauffeur of the "murder car" turn state's evidence if he would be protected, said:

"Here is my position: I will protect every man in this case if I can get the evidence I want against policemen—evidence I know exists. I will let Shapiro and Libby turn state's witnesses if I can get the police conspirators. But I have got to be shown first. I won't buy a pig in a poke."

"There are bigger men than Becker in this case, and I want them. What has the police department, except Dougherty, done? Nothing. They aren't doing anything now. Dougherty is honest and on the level, but can he swing this thing alone? The murder smells of police complicity."

Sam Paul, the east side gang leader, and "Bridge" Webber, gambler, were brought into the supreme court today on writs of habeas corpus issued by their lawyers.

Supreme Court Justice Giegerich today adjourned until tomorrow arguments on the habeas corpus writ sworn out by Webber and Paul, charged with being accessories in the killing of Rosenthal.

District Attorney Whitman resumed his investigation into the Rosenthal case as soon as he reached his office today. Mr. Whitman said that Rosenthal's widow would be the principal witness today before the grand jury.

Gambler's Widow Testifies.

Mrs. Herman Rosenthal, the murdered gambler's widow, arrived at the criminal court building shortly before noon and at once went into District Attorney Whitman's office.

Mrs. Rosenthal went before the grand jury by whom she was examined for nearly one hour, after which she was taken into District Attorney Whitman's office and then to a waiting taxicab. District Attorney Whitman refused to discuss Mrs. Rosenthal's testimony.

MODERN MILITARY AIRSHIP.

Newest Zeppelin Creation Taken Over by German War Department.

Berlin, July 23.—The most modern military airship of the Zeppelin rigid system, was taken over today by the war department after an endurance and speed trial last eighteen hours. The airship developed a speed for forty-nine miles an hour and is considered the most speedy dirigible in the world. It has been christened the "ZIII," and is to be stationed at the fortress of Metz, near the French frontier.

TEXAS PEACHES ARE ARRIVING

The word has gone out that the Michigan peach crop is going to fall short fully 50 per cent. this year. In consequence there is a great scurrying among dealers and commission men to get hold of something good along this line. The house of S. Bash & Co. has contracted for several carloads and the first installment indicates that they can raise peaches all right down in the Lone Star state, for the shipment that came in today proves up in about as luscious and healthy looking fruit as ever came in on a Fort Wayne railroad. Mr. Bash says there is an advantage in the housewife buying peaches while they are plentiful and cheap, as they will soon be scarce.

B. C. WINSTON IS LEADING MOVEMENT

Meeting Being Held in a
Coach in Yards and 100 Are Attending.

One of the largest gatherings of division officials, agents, shop foremen, road supervisors, yardmasters and section foremen ever assembled in Fort Wayne is in progress today in a coach just west of Fairfield avenue. The meeting was called by B. C. Winston, of St. Louis, attorney of Wabash road, who is presiding and the object is to devise means of safety in every department of the road, shops, warehouses and elsewhere where liability to accident is prevalent. Suggestions from men in all branches are being heard and considered and great results are expected in the line of less personal injury to trespasser, patron and employee of the company and a consequent less number of costly damage suits. Among those who are taking part in the discussions are General Counsel B. C. Winston, of St. Louis; J. L. White, of Chicago, inspector of service and efficiency; R. S. Augsburger, of St. Louis, inspector of supplies; Suplt. J. C. Sullivan, of Peru; Suplt. A. F. Helms, of Detroit; Division Engineer W. S. Dames, Master Mechanic G. W. Smith, Freight Agents J. A. Sullivan, of Detroit; A. L. Gilbert, of Fort Wayne; J. D. Herr, of Gary; J. F. Bradley, of Adrian; L. N. Andrews, of Toledo; O. E. Wilson, of Napoleon; N. J. Bechtel, of Defiance; J. Underwood, of Cecil; H. B. Harris, of Antwerp; M. F. Hargrove, of Huntington; W. L. Childers, of Danville; J. T. McParland, of Peru; R. Hamilton, of Lafayette; A. C. Maylor, of Logansport; J. L. Brown, of Wabash; C. W. Greenman, of Attica; J. E. Gage, of Montpelier; Storekeeper C. E. Dale, of St. Thomas; Trainmaster R. W. Hosmer, of Detroit; Trainmaster C. E. Wells, of Peru; General Shop Foreman J. N. Robertson, of St. Thomas; General Shop Foreman Henry Eisele, Machine Shop Foreman E. J. Hausbach, Boilermaker Foreman Charles Dean, Carpenter Foreman W. F. Poyser, Blacksmith Foreman C. L. Hepp, Round House Foreman C. Z. Bond, Tinner Foreman Theo. Steger, Painter Foreman H. N. BUILDING 1,000 MILES OF RAILROAD TRACK IN ONE YEAR—THAT'S
SIR DONALD MANN'S JOB—AND IT'S A WORLD RECORD.

Winnipeg, Man., July 23. Twenty-five thousand men and $25,000,000—these are the men and the money that are pushing in the wilds of Canada the greatest feat in railroad building the world has ever seen.

A thousand miles of line that's the stint of the Canadian Northern's construction gangs for the current year. It will be a record.

At the same time, farther north still, in the dreary muskies of the sub-Arctic region, other men and other millions are at work on another road.

That's why the Canadian Northern is in such a hurry. It wants to put trains into Vancouver before the other road, the National Transcontinental, gets into the Prince Rupert. It's a race between the Canadian Northern and the Canadian government.

Giants in organization and in vision are behind this great feat in construction—Sir William Mackenzie, who financed it, and greater still, Sir Donald Mann who drives the construction work forward on a score of lines; through a mountain at Montreal, across the high divide north of Lake Superior, hither and yon over the prairies, and through the Rockies for hundreds of miles—through solitudes that never heard the voice of civilized man till the Canadian Northern engineers came seeking a grade.

Both these men were poor boys and Jontz left Sunday for Cleveland, where they will spend ten days with relatives and friends.

Assistant Trainmaster W. R. Richardson and Clerk A. C. Twining, of the Pennsylvania, left last night for northern Michigan, where they will spend two weeks fishing and boating.

Fireman S. S. Gross, of the G. R. & I. road, who was operated upon at one of the hospitals two or three weeks ago, is getting along first rate and will leave the hospital for his home the last of the week.

Assistant Foreman R. W. Evans, of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, and his wife, with their sons, Carl and Walter Evans, have gone east for a two weeks' visit. A. A. VanEvery is acting assistant foreman during the absence of Mr. Evans.

High Conway, Pennsylvania engine dispatcher at the round house is taking a two weeks' vacation and left for Toledo, Ohio, this morning to visit his sister. During Mr. Conway's absence, the work of dispatching engines is being performed by R. J. Miller.

Engineer Frank E. Tolley, who sustained painful injuries in a derail accident on the Nickel Plate two or three weeks ago, does not make the progress towards recovery that was expected. He is able to walk out on the streets, but is quite lame and is suffering somewhat from internal injuries.

Fifty Mikado type locomotives, five hundred steel coal cars and three hundred automobile cars, all to be delivered in the fall, are orders placed by the Erie road. The company some time ago ordered twenty-five steel, electric lighted, coaches and eleven combination passenger and baggage cars.

O. I. Forsythe, for many years superintendent of transportation for the Wabash railroad, with headquarters in St. Louis, has been transferred to other duties and the position vacated by him has been filled by the appointment of S. R. Bolt, for many years trainmaster of the St. Louis Terminal association.

Henry Zollinger and William Korte, millwrights in the employ of the Pennsylvania, were guests of friends at Cleveland yesterday. They spent some time a year or two ago in installing machinery in the company's plant in that city and formed a number of acquaintances, whom they visited yesterday.

The Monon road will try the collector system on its passenger trains, commencing August 1. Employees of the auditing department will be sent out to take up tickets and fares, leaving the conductor free to look after other matters connected with his run over the line. The Wabash once inaugurated this plan, but soon abandoned it on the grounds of unnecessary expense.

J. W. Burns, who has been traveling over the northern part of the state in the capacity of traveling secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A. for four or five months, is taking a little respite from his labors. He is spending the week quietly at his home. Mr. Burns has been very successful in his work of interesting people in the towns and villages in the Y. M. C. A. and the result is becoming more and more apparent as the weeks pass.

Not many days before Mergentheim's will have sold out. Follow the crowds for the greatest millinery bargains ever heard of. Mergentheim's, 620 Calhoun street.

Sir Donald Mann, who commands the great construction army of the Canadian Northern, is called the "J. J. Hill of the north." Beginning in an obscure way as a sub-contractor on the Canadian Pacific, with nothing but a limited credit to go on, he has become one of the greatest figures in the railway world. Besides being the head of the construction work on the Canadian Northern, he has constructed the Canadian Pacific short line through Maine, the Ontario Power company plant at Niagara, and various railways in South America. He is a loyal Canadian, and was an ardent opponent of the reciprocity treaty.

both have been knighted for their notable achievements in railroad building.

A few days ago construction crews began driving a bore through Mount Royal into Montreal, working night and day at both ends. New branches are building in Ontario, linking Ottawa, Toronto and Quebec. A gap in Western Ontario is being closed. In Manitoba and Saskatchewan the graders and track layers are swarming.

In Alberta, a gridiron of branches is spreading towards the great Peace river region. From Edmonton, lines are stretching westward into British Columbia and southwest toward the Pacific and the western terminus at Vancouver.

Next year's stint is 908 miles. By 1914 freight trains will be running through to the coast over the new line. Passenger trains will be put on during the year following.

Meanwhile, at least two new cities are being built along the line. One of these is Mount Royal, a suburb of Montreal, called into being by the bore through the mountain. The other is Port Mann, a suburb of Vancouver, where the Pacific terminus of the road will be and where great shops, factories and government buildings are already rising.

Thirty years ago Canada had no transcontinental road. In two or three years more it will have three, one of them owned by the government, and all of them under the thumb of the Canadian railway commission. And two of them are a week nearer Japan than the transcontinentals to Frisco, and one, the National, 400 miles nearer to Japan than either of its privately owned rivals.

Our Lady of the Snows is about ready to give the States a fine run for their money in the matter of transcontinental traffic.

SIXTEEN ARE INJURED.
City Street Car at Indianapolis in Wreck as Brakes Fail.

Indianapolis, July 23.—Sixteen passengers were injured today when an inbound Prospect street car loaded with fifty passengers, sliding down the Virginia avenue viaduct, split a switch at Maryland and Delaware streets and zig-zagging north in Delaware street, struck an interurban car. Failure of the air brakes to work is given as the cause of the accident.

None of the passengers on the city car was severely hurt and none on the interurban car injured. The city car was said to have been behind its scheduled time and was trying to make up Stolen.

CITY COURT DOCKET

Pete Frizze, a Roumanian laborer at the rolling mills, licked Nick Lappold because he thought he had stolen $15 from his father and then had to pay a fine of $1 and costs, amounting to $11, in the city court today for taking the law in his own hands.

Pete Frizze, sr., got part of his money back and some clothing that is said to have been purchased with the stolen coin, but he didn't get enough to pay the fine and costs. Lappold was not charged with theft, but was fined $5 and costs for drunkenness and went to jail because he could not pay it.

Cleaning Up the City.

Last night the police department was instructed to clean up all the bums who could not give good accounts of themselves in order to have them in charge during the circus today.

Along the railroad tracks and in box cars they found twenty who could not satisfy the policemen that they were entitled to their liberty and they were sent in on charges of loitering. The cases were continued from one to three days and the prisoners were sent to jail to keep them out of trouble today.

The Other Cases.

Floyd Morr, eighteen years old and a clerk in the ticket office at the Wabash depot, was held until tomorrow on a charge of having embezzled $90 paid for two tickets said to have been sold last October. The stubs of the tickets were marked cancelled, but it was shown they had been used and that they had been made out by Morr. He denies having taken the money.

CRITICIZE PLAN TO REORGANIZE

Conferences Held at War Department About the Navy.

MR. DUPONT'S VIEWS

Washington, July 23.—The daily conferences at the war department to discuss the new plan for army reorganization have brought out some criticisms of the project, as desired by Secretary Stimson. There is, for example, opposition to the consolidation of the adjutant-general's department with the general staff on the ground that this would enlarge the scope of the general staff beyond that intended by Secretary Root, who was responsible for the legislation creating that body.

There is also some criticism of the experimental establishment of a consolidated quartermaster corps to be made up of the quartermaster, subsistence and pay departments. Legislation is pending to create such a corps on a permanent basis, and the congress is not disposed to accept the proposition to have it made merely temporary.

Criticism of DuPont.
The most striking criticism of the project was made by Senator DuPont, of Delaware, chairman of the senate military committee. He does not favor the war department plan for the establishment of a reserve based on a short period of enlistment and keeping on the pay roll the discharged soldiers who shall be eligible to duty with the colors.

Mr. DuPont favors a reserve force on another basis. He believes in the long term enlistment with a provision that when a man is discharged he shall be regarded as eligible to duty on occasion, and that when he presents himself he shall receive a bonus.

By this arrangement the government would be spared the trouble of keeping track of old soldiers and would avoid the expense of monthly payments to men who render no service and who may not be physically able to perform military duty when the need arrives.

Opposed to Reserve Corps.
Under Mr. DuPont's plan only those who are accepted for service would receive the bonus. He plainly informed the military authorities that he would not favor their plan of maintaining a reserve corps.

It will be some time before the army reorganization plan is ready to be submitted to the congress in legislative shape. It will be revised at the conclusion of the present conferences and will then be sent out to the army for further comment and criticism. It is doubtful whether anything will be done at the next session, as it is by no means certain the congress would accept any comprehensive plan for army reorganization.

The affair was given by Louis F. Morner, and the guest of honor was his fine dog Major, who, seated at the head of the table, was admired by the owner's friends. In the course of the banquet the city band gave a concert. Major, unconscious of the honor, devoured his share of the viands and looked about for more.

DEATH COMES TO JOHN W. PERRIN

Well-Known Pressman Had Lived in Fort Wayne Forty-Two Years.

THE OTHER DEATHS

John Wesley Perrin, aged fifty-three years, the well-known pressman, died Monday afternoon at his home, 217 Fourth street, after a long illness. Death was due to heart trouble and other complications, from which he had suffered a number of years.

JOHN W. PERRIN, Well-Known Fort Wayne Pressman Who is Dead.

Mr. Perrin had been a resident of Fort Wayne for the past forty-two years. He was born May 25, 1859, at Bourbon, and was a son of James and Keria Perrin. He came to Fort Wayne with his parents in 1870 and in 1876 took employment with the Daily Gazette as a press feeder and continued in this capacity until 1880. Mr. Perrin then became pressman at the Fort Wayne Sentinel where he remained until 1906. Later he went on the road for the Duplex Printing company, but finding this work too exacting for his health he returned to Fort Wayne and for a time was employed as pressman at the Journal-Gazette. He left there in 1909 and went to Florida, where he remained several months. After returning to this city the last time, he accepted employment at the Archer Printing company, and later at the printing plant of the Bowser works, as a pressman.

Surviving besides the widow and one daughter, Maude, are the aged mother, five sisters and one brother—Mrs. E. H. Bookwalter, of this city; Mrs. A. W. Richie, of Elms, Kan.; Mrs. J. B. Brilhart, of Bourbon; Mrs. B. S. Thompson, of this city; Mrs. R. Simmons, of Butler, and H. S. Perrin, of Marion. Mr. Perrin was a member of Harmony lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F., and of the Trinity Methodist Episcopal church.

BLECKMAN.

Jerome Bleckman, for many years a resident of Fort Wayne, died at 7 o'clock Monday evening at the family residence, 623 West Creighton avenue, at the age of eighty-one years. Death was due to senility and followed a year's illness. Three months ago his condition became critical and the aged man was unconscious the greater part of the time.

Mr. Bleckman was born at Stratford, N. Y., March 24, 1831, and he spent his early life in that city. He moved to Fort Wayne in 1873. Mr. Bleckman was united in marriage to Miss Henrietta Sixley, in 1858. Three years ago the couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Surviving besides the widow are the following children: Arthur Bleckman, of Raiden, Ohio; Mrs. O. N. Gullin, of this city, and John E. Bleckman, of Cincinnati.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the residence, Rev. A. G. Jennings, of Toledo, officiating. Six grandsons will act as pall-bearers.

SHADY.

Yancy Adren Shady, aged twenty-four years, six months and twenty-six days, of 1210 Guthrie street, died at 5 o'clock this morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Shady, 2120 Nelson street. Death was due to Bright's disease and followed a year's illness.

The young man was born at Murray, Ind., December 27, 1887. Since coming to Fort Wayne he had been employed as a machinist. Surviving he leaves the wife, the parents, and one sister, Mrs. I. A. Summers, all of this city.

Interment will be made at Prospect cemetery, four miles west of Ossian.

FUNERAL NOTICES.

Hormann.—Funeral services for Caroline Hormann Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock from the family residence, eight miles south of the city, and later from St. John's Lutheran church in Adams township, Rev. Frank officiating.

Delagrang.—Funeral services for Constance Delagrang Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the residence of a daughter, Mrs. George Till, in Perry township, at 10 o'clock from St. Vincent's Catholic church at Academie.

PAID FOR UNTAXED DOG.

James Dalton Plead Guilty and Was Given Fine.

James Dalton's case was the first to come up of those which will be heard in the court of Justice Tancey this week on the charge of being delinquent in dog taxes. Mr. Dalton plead guilty to the charge and the court fined him $1 and costs and ordered that the tax be paid.

The prosecutor's office is preparing a large number of the delinquent dog tax affidavits, some of which have been filed in Justice Tancey's court. It was expected that some more of the affidavits would be filed with Justice Grabner late today.

H. D. Pixley, of Utica, N. Y., is visiting with his brother, G. W. Pixley, for several days.

IN THE CHURCHES

TRANSFER OF ABLE PRIEST.

Father Nurre, of Lafayette, is Sent to Louisville, Ky.

Rev. Leonard Nurre, who has been rector of St. Boniface church at Lafayette for nine years, is to be transferred to St. Boniface church in Louisville, Ky. Official notice of the transfer from the council of the Franciscan Friars at Cincinnati is expected this week and several other changes will be made in the Catholic clergy of Lafayette.

In making the announcement of these changes the Lafayette Courier of Monday has the following to say: "Rev. Father Clementine will be sent here from Batesville to succeed Father Leonard. He was stationed here at one time as assistant rector of St. Boniface church and is quite well known in the city. Rev. Killian Roth, assistant rector at St. Boniface church, will go to Streator, Ill., and Rev. Alvin Smith, assistant rector at St. Lawrence church, will go to Olpe, Kansas. Rev. WAS ONCE THEIR CARETAKER.

But Two Camels With Circus Didn't Recognize Hiram Moderwell.

Lined up among the crowd watching the Barnum & Bailey circus pass this morning was Hiram Moderwell, of this city, who has just graduated from Harvard, and who for the novelty of the thing walked away six weeks of a summer several years ago in traveling around with the Barnum & Bailey outfit. Mr. Moderwell's official duties were with the camels and in the parade today he saw the pair to which he was particularly attached when a circus employee. Mr. Moderwell wasn't so sure about being recognized by the animals, but said he was going out to the circus grounds and try and visit with them.

TAFT WOULD REPEAL ACT

the reciprocity law. In case any one of these bills reaches the president and is vetoed, it is expected he will make clear in his veto message the fact that he would approve a measure to repeal the reciprocity law.

POSTOFFICE BILL IS IN.

Revises Parcels Post System; Cuts Out Good Roads Provision.

Washington, July 23.—The postoffice appropriation bill, shorn of the good roads provision proposed by the house and embracing a revised parcels post system, with changes based on zones of distance, was reported to the senate today by the postoffice committee.

The total appropriations proposed by the bill are above those of the house measure which carried approximately $260,000,000. One of the principal increases is in the pay of railroads for transporting mail, the senate committee adding more than $2,500,000.

In striking out the Shackleford good roads feature of the house bill, which provided for federal improvement of highways, the senate committee recommends an investigation by a special commission of three house members and three senators and provides for no highway improvements until this commission has reported.

The Barnhart amendment in the house bill for the regular publication of the names of stockholders of newspapers and periodicals is changed to provide for publication once a year when lists of the stockholders are required to be filed with local postmasters.

The parcels post section is radically different from that incorporated in the house bill, which provided a flat rate of postage for all distances. The senate provision is that of the Bourne bill slightly modified. Senator Bourne recommended that third and fourth class mail matter be combined for the parcels post service; but the bill makes the parcels post apply only to fourth class matter.

The senate committee struck out of the house bill the provision giving to postal employees the right to combine in labor unions and the right to petition congress for redress of their grievances.

It also provided for the abolishment of the present system of carrying second class by fast freight under what is known as the "blue tag" system. Under the senate bill all second class would be put back into regular mail carriers after August 1.

Steel cars for railway mail service, which were required by the house bill to be in universal use by American railroads by 1917, are also required by the senate bill. The house bill required the railroads to replace twenty-five per cent of its wooden mail cars every year, while the senate bill would give the roads one year of grace and then require them to replace 25 per cent of their cars each year for four years.

Senator Obadiah Gardner, of Maine, launched an attack upon the measure and counseled the senate to adopt the plan already approved by the house.

Senator Gardner declared the senate committee on postoffices had been unfair to a parcels post bill he had introduced and denounced the Bourne plan as a "mockery." He criticized its limitations and declared its effect would be to give the railroads higher incomes for postal shipments than they now enjoy from express packages.

LITTLETON NOT IN ACCORD.

Will Sign Steel Trust Report With Many Reservations.

Washington, July 23.—Representative Martin W. Littleton, of New York, member of the democratic majority of the house steel trust investigating committee, today formally presented his views to the committee, dissenting from the legislative recommendations of Chairman Stanley. He agreed to sign the Stanley report with many reservations. That left Mr. Stanley with but two other members of the committee of nine in complete accord with him. They are Representatives Beall, of Texas, and McGillicuddy, of Maine.

Mr. Littleton's views favor principally a joint body of the house and senate to study the question and the exclusion from interstate commerce of corporations in restraint of trade. He declines to support a proposed bill to put upon a corporation the burden of proving it is a "reasonable" restraint of trade.

Such a bill, Mr. Littleton says, would preserve "the chief fault of the Sherman law, which is the policy of a belated attack after a concern has grown up instead of providing any means of prevention."

CITES ADVANCE IN OPERATING COST

and Alton, again took the stand. He completed his explanation of 115 statistic tables which the railway managers offered to controvert the claim of the engineers for increases in pay estimated at $5,700,000 per year. He said that these tables show a gradual increase in the pay of engineers, who are the highest paid skilled workmen in the service of the roads. He added that the tables also show a proportionate increase in the pay of other employees whenever the engineers obtain an advance, and that, in his opinion, it would be difficult to persuade the firemen and other employees that they are not also entitled to more pay.

Mr. Worthington called attention to the increased cost of operating the railroads under recent federal laws and requirements of the interstate commerce commission. He produced tables showing that it will cost the railroads $10,163,492 to comply with the laws requiring the installation of safety appliances. He said the railroads did not object to this as the cost is spread over a large area. He said it cost $11,874,365 a year to observe the 15-hour law and $3,000,000 a year to meet the requirement of the full train crews. This law, he explained, compels railroads to keep more men on both passenger and freight trains than is really necessary. He said the added cost to railroads to comply with these laws is one of the reasons why they do not feel justified in paying higher wages to employees.

On cross examination by Warren S. Stone, Mr. Worthington insisted that there has been no changes in working conditions on railroads in the last ten years which would warrant more pay for engineers.

KIMMEL'S NAME IN NEW MYSTERY

Officers at Decatur, Ill., Seize Some Baggage in Burglar Hunt.

KIMMEL IN CHICAGO

Decatur, Ill., July 23.—The finding of a grip and personal effects addressed to George A. Kimmel, Niles, Mich., is being investigated by the local police in the hope of tracing a burglar who last Saturday night robbed a store in Foolsland, a small town in Champaign county, Ill. The grip was seized at the office of an express company yesterday addressed to Kimmel at Decatur, and contained a number of letters and papers together with a black stocking cap and a stick of grease paint.

The Foolsland store was robbed of watches, chains and silverware valued at $300 and the police expected to find some of the articles in the grip as they had been informed that a man calling himself Kimmel was in Foolsland Saturday. Friends of Kimmel in Chicago declared he had not left the city since an operation was performed on his head some months ago. They assert that some one masquerading under his name was responsible for the grip and contents.

George A. Kimmel figured in the disputed identity case involving some $5,000 insurance money which was claimed by his mother and sister, who declared him to be dead.

Thirty-three men chosen four years before by politicians to stand superior to all the voters of a great state like California and if that state has not shaped its laws according to a given roll of fifty-three private men the state shall not be disfranchised.

"My own judgment is that Messrs. Barnes, Penrose, Guggenheim & Company made a poor swap when they took two stolen delegates from California in place of the electoral vote of California. They were not contented with that. They swapped the electoral vote of Massachusetts for the vote of two delegates. I think it was as expensive a swap as was ever made by political managers."

Beamed With Pleasure.

The reports of the county chairmen all were highly optimistic, and the colonel beamed with pleasure at various predictions of an overwhelming Roosevelt vote.

Announcement was made by Chairman Hotchkiss that a meeting of the delegates and alternates to the Chicago convention elected from the various congressional districts in the state would be held in Buffalo on August 3 for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternates-at-large from this state to the convention. The delegates will stop off at that city on the way to the Chicago convention.

GOING ALL THE WAY.

New Jersey Progressives Put Complete Ticket in Field.

Asbury Park, N. J., July 23.—The New Jersey progressive leaders decided to put in the field a complete ticket, including presidential electors and nominees for state offices. The methods of accomplishing this, however, kept them in conference until 2 o'clock. The mass convention met shortly after noon.

The promoters of the progressive movement in New Jersey have been divided on the course of action to be pursued, those who favored putting a ticket immediately in the field being opposed by the argument that the national progressive party would not come into existence until after the progressives held their national convention in Chicago.

There also was discussion as to whether the New Jersey progressives should leave the republican organization or try to hold the machinery of the old party.

Those who favored the latter course argued that the result of the presidential primaries proved that the progressives constituted a majority of the republican party and are entitled to retain the privileges of the old established party. It was urged that the progressives can nominate their candidates for electors and state offices at the republican primaries in September with the understanding that these electors would vote for Colonel Roosevelt. Severing relations with the republicans and putting up a third ticket would necessitate naming presidential electors by petition, since the progressives now have no legal standing as a party.

Edward D. Osborne, chairman of the Roosevelt committee, who presided at last night's conference, said today that he believed those who counseled absolute divorce from the republican party would prevail at the convention today. The arrangements committee has agreed upon features of a "declaration of principles" which will be submitted to the convention in lieu of a platform. It was decided that the twenty-eight delegates, all Roosevelt men, who represented the state at the regular republican national convention, shall serve in the same capacity at the national progressive convention with power to fill the few vacancies. Two of these new delegates, the committee decided, shall be colored men. This was granted in compliance with the request of a committee of four negro leaders who waited on the committee last night.

The "declaration of principles" will be similar to that adopted by the Roosevelt state convention at the opening of the primary campaign.

DISCUSSING PLATFORM.

Dixon and Other Third Party Leaders Framing It Up.

Chicago, July 23.—Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Colonel Roosevelt's campaign manager, discussed with leaders of the third party movement today the platform to be drafted for submission to the national convention in Chicago on August 5.

"Upon that platform, freed of the platitudes usually in the old parties, the new party will stake its right to ex-

PERCY OPPOSES FREE CANAL BILL

Disreputable Attempt to Evade Obligations, He Declares.

APPEALS TO SENATE

Washington, July 23.—"I do not believe we should give free toll through the Panama canal to our shipping, either coastwise or international," said Senator Percy, of Mississippi, in a speech in the senate today. He added that he did not believe the Hay-Pauncefote treaty with Great Britain permitted the United States to discriminate against foreign shipping in the interest of American commerce.

Senator Percy said the neutrality of the canal had been guaranteed by the United States in return for Great Britain's surrender of her protest rights against its fortification.

He declared the United States could not claim under the British treaty the right to give favors to its own ships. If such a provision had been made a part of the treaty, he said, it would have been "instantly rejected" by Great Britain.

"It has been said we cannot get a fair trial at The Hague court," said Senator Percy. "If we were to present to any court the claim that we were entitled to these privileges under the treaty, we could not escape the charge on the part of all nations that we were making a disreputable attempt to evade our just obligations."

Senator Percy thought the United States enjoyed practically no privileges under the Hay-Pauncefote treaty which it did not have to share with the world.

The roof of the Wabash freight house on Fairfield avenue, started to burn shortly after noon today when some sparks from an engine fell upon it. The fire was extinguished with only a slight loss.

HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT.

Hopkinsville, Ky., July 23.—Sylvester Sullivan and Norman Young were probably fatally injured and Frank P. Gracey was painfully hurt today when an automobile in which they were returning to their homes in Clarksville, Tenn., skidded on a muddy road near here, throwing them from the machine. The injured are prominent young business men of Clarksville.

AUTO ACCIDENT FATAL.

Man Run Down by Argentine Official Dies in Hospital.

Allentown, Pa., July 23.—While Lieutenant Games, of the Argentine commission, in charge of the work being done for the Argentine republic at the Bethlehem Steel works, was en route to this city from Bethlehem in his automobile, last night, he ran down Charles Ott, of South Allentown. Ott died today in a hospital, where he had been rushed in the automobile by Lieutenant Games.

With Lieutenant Games at the time were Lieutenant Ford, also of the commission, and the latter's bride of a few weeks. The accident is said to have been unavoidable.

SENATE WILL COMPROMISE.

Washington, July 23.—One battle-ship, instead of two, will be accepted by the senate, if that basis of compromise can be reached by the house democrats in their caucus tomorrow night.

The conference between the two houses over the naval bill set for today, was postponed after it became known that the house democrats were planning again to fight out the battle-ship issue among themselves.

FOUND GUILTY AS SPY.

Edinburg, Scotland, July 23.—Armed Karl Graves, a German, was found guilty today by the Scottish high court on a charge of spying. He was sentenced to eight months imprisonment. Notes regarding guns under construction in the British government arsenals and other incriminating documents were found in his possession.

TOOK HOBO TRIP IN MALE ATTIRE

Disreputable Attempt to Woman's Secret Comes Out When Two Companions Are Killed.

ONE FROM LAFAYETTE

Cincinnati, O., July 23.—The death of two companions as the result of being struck by a railroad train last night put an end to a "hobo" trip which Mrs. Lillian Shircliff, 34 years old, of Louisville, Ky., was taking attired in man's clothing. Two men, William Dankhoff, aged 34 years, a steamboat deckhand of Louisville, and A. B. Jenkinson, aged 52, a stonemason, of Lafayette, Ind., were struck by a Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern train at the outskirts of this city last night. Jenkinson was instantly killed while Dankhoff died today. The woman revealed the fact that she was the third "man" of the party when she tried to secure a dress today to go to the hospital to see Dankhoff.

The woman said she had been with the men since last Thursday when they started "on the road" from Louisville with the intention of "seeing something of life." She said she was a widow and had worked as a domestic in various Louisville families.

JUROR LEAVITT BETTER.

May Be Back in Box at Darrow Trial Tomorrow.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 23.—Indications early today were that L. A. Leavitt, the juror, whose illness caused a suspension of the bribery trial of Clarence S. Darrow, would be improved sufficiently to resume his duties tomorrow. Judge Hutton received a report from the physician sent to Elmonte, the juror's home, saying that it had been decided not to operate upon Leavitt for appendicitis and that there was a chance of the juror being well enough to return to Los Angeles probably today.

It was decided by the judge to wait for a further report from the physician before resuming the trial with A. M. Blakeslee, the thirteenth juror, in Leavitt's seat, as yesterday it was thought would be necessary.

CARDINAL GIBBONS IS 78.

Distinguished Catholic Churchman in Excellent Health.

Baltimore, Md., July 23.—Cardinal Gibbons is 78 years old today. He planned to spend the day quietly at the home of a friend in Carroll county, where, except for the years he has been in Europe or on other trips, he has passed many of his birthdays.

The cardinal is reported to be in excellent health. He received many letters and telegrams of congratulation.

HAD A GILL NET.

John Wappas Fined Five Dollars and Cost in Justice Court.

John Wappas, who lives about fifteen miles southwest of the city, paid a $5 and costs fine in Justice Grabner's court today on the charge of violating the fish laws. Wappas was found by Deputy Game Warden Walker to be using a gill net while out fishing several days ago.

Charles Lonzo was bound over to the circuit court under a $100 bond on surety of the peace proceedings in the court of Justice Grabner today.

BOTH ARE CENSURED.

Railway Officials and Employees Are Blamed for Wreck.

Chicago, July 23.—A verdict censuring both the employees and the officials of the Chicago Burlington and Quincy railroad was returned today after more than four hours deliberation by the jury impaneled for the coroner's inquest of the death of thirteen persons who lost their lives in the collision of fast mail and passenger trains at Western Springs, a Chicago suburb, Sunday, July 14.

FORT WAYNE MEN IN BIG LAND DEAL

Local Capital Gets Valuable Estates in City of Cleveland.
$2,500,000 IS INVOLVED

The Edgewater (Cliff) company, a corporation composed of Fort Wayne business men and local capital, has just completed the purchase of the estates of the late Senator Marcus A. Hanna and J. R. Perkins, in Cleveland, O., and arrangements are now being made to plat the land into building lots. The transactions involve $2,500,000.

The property is located in a section of Cleveland, that while especially adapted for residences, has not been readily accessible from the business district of the city. This one condition has been taken care of, however, and bonds have been issued for the construction of a new overhead bridge across the river separating the estates from the center of the city, and with its completion the property will be within ten minutes walking distance from the business district.

In the company are B. L. Magee, president of the City & Suburban Realty company; A. F. Dorsey, formerly secretary of the F. P. Wilt Wholesale Grocery company; Willis Hattersley, F. K. Safford, secretary of the G. E. Bursley company; W. L. Wilt, chief clerk to the president of motive power of the Pennsylvania company; Charles E. Bond, vice president of the Old National bank; A. S. Bond, president of the Packard Piano company; M. J. Blitz, insurance; A. H. Perfect, president of the A. H. Perfect Wholesale Grocery company; J. M. Landenberger, president of the Indiana Road Machine company; and Arthur F. Hall, vice president of the Lincoln National Life Insurance company.

Three Cleveland men have been included in the company, so as to comply with the Ohio incorporation laws. One of them is Attorney William L. David, who has been made vice president. R. L. Magee is president, and Charles E. Bond is treasurer. A. F. Dorsey has been selected secretary.

The estates are surrounded on all sides by homes ranging in cost from $12,000 to $15,000, and on the east lies Edgewater park, on the north Lake Erie, and on the west the lake cliffs, and the city is to extend the Edgewater park boulevard and also maintain it after its construction.

The Hanna property has been on the market since the death of the senator, but, as it was not desirable for platting without the Perkins' estate, when the latter was offered, the Fort Wayne capitalists were quick to see and seize the opportunity. Mr. Magee and Mr. Dorsey are in Cleveland to make the first payment on the land.

CITY BREVITIES.

Mrs. Lulu Honthelm, of 224 West Washington street, has sold to the Northern Pacific railroad her farm land along the road's right of way near Fargo, N. D., for the sum of $9,000.

Justice of the Peace Henry Grabner and family have returned from Rome City after a week's outing.

The school board has deferred the awarding of the contract for the South Wayne school until its meeting next week. The board opened the bids at a meeting last night, and also attended to the adjusting of the salaries of the janitors and engineers.

George Rice, the Perry township farmer, was declared of unsound mind by a commission in Justice Tancey's court Monday afternoon. Rice is the man who disturbed the peace of Huntertown and vicinity by carelessly flashing a gun at various times and he has been in the local jail for several days upon a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

Mrs. Clark Gifford has returned home from Philadelphia, where she went to bring her nine year old daughter, Virginia, who has been taking treatment in a hospital there for some time. The condition of the child is said to be improved.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

Letting of "Spy Run" Grade School Building.

Notice of letting of contracts for the new "Spy Run" brick, stone and reinforced concrete, fireproof grade school building, to be erected in Fort Wayne, Ind.

Sealed bids for the general contract and for the painting and glazing contract will be received at the office of the board of school trustees on or before 5 p. m., Monday, July 29, 1934, and opened at said time and a contract let to the best and lowest bidder, that in the opinion of the board of school trustees, will be to the best interest of the city, for the furnishing of all material and labor required in the erection and completion of said school building, according to plans and specifications prepared by Mahurin & Mahurin, architects, Fort Wayne, Ind., and now on file in the office of the school trustees and the architects.

The general contractor shall accompany his bid with a certified check of $2,000.

The contractor for painting and glazing shall accompany his bid with a certified check of $200.

The certified checks shall be made payable to Wm. H. Shambaugh, treasurer, as a guarantee. If the contract is awarded, he will enter into a contract approved and accepted by the board of school trustees for the completion of the work so bid for and furnish a surety bond, and in failure thereof, shall forfeit the amounts to the school city.

The successful contractor, within three days after the award, shall execute a contract and file a surety bond, from a bonding company legally doing business in the state of Indiana, equal to the amount of the bid, which bond shall guarantee the faithful performance of the contract and the execution of the work so bid for.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

Board of School Trustees.
JESSE MACHETH, President.
WM. H. SHAMBAUGH, Treasurer.
ERNEST W. COOK, Secretary.
